21-2A-5. Special tax levy for college district operation.

A. In each college district, the board may call an election within the college district for the purpose of authorizing that board to levy taxes on all taxable property within the district to be used for current operations, maintenance and capital improvements of the college district. The taxes, if authorized as provided in the College District Tax Act, shall be in addition to the taxes authorized for the payment of general obligation bonds pursuant to the provisions of the College District Tax Act. This election shall be for the purpose of allowing the electors, as the term "electors" is used in Article 8, Section 2 of the constitution of New Mexico, to vote on whether to allow the levy and on a specific limitation not to exceed five dollars ($5.00) on each one thousand dollars ($1,000) of net taxable value, as that term is defined in the Property Tax Code [Chapter 7, Articles 35 through 38 NMSA 1978]. If approved by a majority of the electors voting on the issue, the board of county commissioners, at the direction of the board, shall levy the taxes in an amount certified by the commission on higher education [higher education department] as necessary to meet the annual budget approved by the commission on higher education [higher education department], but in no event shall the taxes levied exceed the rate limitation approved by the electors nor shall it exceed any lower maximum rate required by operation of the rate limitation provisions of Section 7-37-7.1 NMSA 1978 applied to the rate limitation approved by the electors.

B. Levies, assessments and collections and distributions authorized for college district financing shall be made at the same time and in the same manner as levies, assessments and collections and distributions for ad valorem taxes for school districts are made.

C. The board may call an election within the district for the purpose of authorizing the board to raise the levy to a rate not to exceed the maximum authorized in Subsection A of this section, lower the levy or abolish the continuing levy, upon the adoption of a resolution by a majority of the members of the board.

D. Alternatively, an election to raise or lower the rate limitation or to abolish the continuing levy shall be called by the board upon receipt by it of a valid petition. To be valid, the petition shall be signed by electors of the college district in a number equal to ten percent of the number of votes cast in the district for the office of governor at the last general election and shall state the question to be voted upon.

E. If the question to be voted on at an election called pursuant to Subsection D of this section fails, it shall not again be submitted to the voters within two years from the date of the election.

F. Any part of the rate authorized by the electors that is not imposed for reasons other than the rate limitation required by Section 7-37-7.1 NMSA 1978 may be authorized to be imposed by the board without calling an election.

History: Laws 1995, ch. 224, § 11.

21-2A-6. College district general obligation bonds; interest; form; payment.

A. Any board, other than a board created pursuant to the provisions of the Off-Campus Instruction Act [21-14A-1 through 21-14A-10 NMSA 1978], may borrow money for the purpose of:

- (1) erecting, furnishing, constructing, purchasing, remodeling and equipping buildings and utility facilities, exclusive of stadiums;
- (2) making other real property improvements;

(3) purchasing grounds; and

(4) purchasing and installing computer hardware and software with a useful life equal to or exceeding the maturity of the bonds.

B. To carry out the purposes of the College District Tax Act, the board may issue negotiable general obligation bonds of the college district, if approved by the higher education department and then approved at an election by a majority of the qualified electors voting on the issue; provided, however, no bonds shall be issued that create a total bonded indebtedness in the college district in excess of three percent of the assessed valuation of the taxable property within the college district as shown in the preceding general assessment, which debt limitation is to be in excess of other existing debt limitations. Bonds shall be sold at a price that does not result in a net effective interest rate exceeding the maximum net effective interest rate permitted by the Public Securities Act [6-14-1 through 6-14-3 NMSA 1978]. The bonds shall be sold at a public sale or may be sold at private sale to the state of New Mexico or the New Mexico finance authority at the price and upon such terms and conditions as the board and the state of New Mexico or the New Mexico finance authority may determine. The bonds may be in such denominations and registered and pay interest as the board determines.

C. The bonds shall be due and payable either annually or semiannually commencing not later than three years from their date. The bonds shall be issued for a term of not more than twenty years. The form and terms of the bonds, including provisions for their payment and optional or mandatory redemption, shall be as determined by the board. If the board so determines, the bonds may be redeemable prior to maturity upon payment of a premium not exceeding one percent of the principal of the bonds. The bonds shall be executed in the name of and on behalf of the college district, signed by the chair of the board, with the seal of the college district affixed to the bonds, and attested by the secretary of the board. The bonds may be executed and sealed in accordance with the provisions of the Uniform Facsimile Signature of Public Officials Act [6-9-1 through 6-9-6 NMSA 1978].

D. To provide for the payment of the interest and principal of the bonds issued and sold pursuant to the provisions of the College District Tax Act, upon approval of the bonds at an election by a majority of the qualified electors in the college district who voted on the issue, the board of county commissioners shall annually make and levy, during each year in which any bonds are outstanding, an ad valorem tax on all taxable property in the district in an amount sufficient to produce a sum equal to one year's interest on all bonds then outstanding, together with an amount sufficient to pay the principal on all bonds as they mature. This levy shall not exceed five mills; provided, however, that this five-mill limitation may be exceeded in any year in which the valuation of the property within the college district declines to a level lower than the valuation of the property in the year in which the bonds were issued. The taxes authorized by this subsection shall be levied, assessed and collected at the times and in the manner that ad valorem taxes for school districts are assessed, levied and collected, and it is the duty of all tax officials and authorities to cause taxes authorized by this subsection to be levied, assessed and collected.

E. The proceeds obtained from the issuance of the bonds shall not be diverted or expended for any purposes other than those provided in the College District Tax Act; provided that no building shall be built without prior approval of detailed plans by the higher education department; and further provided that the expenses incurred in the preparation and sale of the bonds may be paid out of the proceeds from the sale of the bonds.

F. Prior to the issuance and sale of bonds, the attorney general shall approve all bond transcripts and certify approval or rejection thereof in the same manner as is required by law for the approval of school bonds. Unless otherwise specifically provided, the provisions of the College District Tax Act for the issuance of bonds shall be deemed exclusive of the provisions of all other laws.

The principal of and interest on general obligation bonds authorized in the College District Tax Act to be issued, and any prior redemption premiums, shall be payable from the proceeds of general property taxes levied without limitation as to rate or amount, except for the limitation for general obligation bond issuances established in the College District Tax Act, and except to the extent other revenues are made available for that purpose. All bonds shall be the general obligations of the college district, and the full faith and credit of the college district shall be pledged for the payments of the bonds.

B. It may be provided in any proceedings authorizing any bonds under the College District Tax Act that the bond shall recite that it is issued under authority of the College District Tax Act. The recital shall conclusively impart full compliance with all of the provisions of the College District Tax Act, and all bonds issued containing the recital shall be incontestable for any cause whatsoever after their delivery for value.

C. All bonds issued by a college district shall be fully negotiable and constitute negotiable instruments within the meaning of and for all the purposes of the Uniform Commercial Code [Chapter 55 NMSA 1978] as that law is now or may hereafter be in force in this state. If lost or completely destroyed, any bond may be reissued in the form and tenor of the lost or destroyed bond upon the owner furnishing to the satisfaction of the board:

- (1) proof of ownership;
- (2) proof of loss or destruction;
- (3) a surety bond in twice the face amount of the bond and coupons; and
- (4) payment of the cost of preparing and issuing the new bond and coupons.

D. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the board may in any proceedings authorizing bonds under the College District Tax Act provide for the initial issuance of one or more bonds, in this section called "bond", aggregating the amount of the entire issue, may make such provision for installment payments of the principal amount of any bond as it may consider desirable and may provide for the making of any bond payable to bearer or otherwise, registrable as to principal or as to both principal and interest and, where interest accruing on the bond is not represented by interest coupons, for the endorsing of payments of interest on the bond. The board may further make provisions in any such resolution for the manner and circumstances in and under which any bond may, at the request of the holder of the bond, be converted into bonds of smaller denominations, which bonds of smaller denominations may in turn be either coupon bonds or bonds registrable as to principal or principal and interest.

The board of any college district may, with the approval of the commission on higher education [higher education department], issue bonds, to be denominated refunding bonds, for the purpose of refunding any of the general obligation bonded indebtedness of the college district. Whenever the board of any college district deems it expedient to issue refunding bonds, it shall adopt a resolution setting out the facts making the issuance of the refunding bonds necessary or advisable, the determination of such necessity or advisability by the board and the amount of refunding bonds that the board deems necessary and advisable to issue. The resolution shall fix the form of the bonds; the rate or rates of interest of the bonds, provided that the net effective interest rate of the bonds shall not exceed the maximum net effective interest rate permitted by the Public Securities Act [6-14-1 through 6-14-3 NMSA 1978], as hereafter amended and supplemented; the date of the refunding bonds; the denominations of the refunding bonds; the maturity dates, the last of which shall not be more than twenty years from the date of the refunding bonds; and the place or places of payment within or without the state of both principal and interest. All refunding bonds may be exchanged dollar for dollar for the bonds to be refunded or they may be sold as directed by the board, and the proceeds of the sale shall be applied only to the purpose for which the bonds were issued and the payment of any expenses incidental thereto.

21-2A-9. College district revenue bonds; refunding bonds.

A. The board of any college district may issue revenue bonds for the purpose of constructing, purchasing, improving, remodeling, furnishing or equipping any necessary buildings, structures or facilities of the college district. The revenue bonds shall be payable from and secured by a lien on and pledge of all or any part of any of the revenues, income or receipts of the college district and its board, including without limitation any rentals, rates, charges, tuition and fees or other revenues other than ad valorem tax proceeds available to the college district and its board.

B. The revenue bonds shall be authorized by resolution of the board approved by majority vote of the board. The commission on higher education [higher education department] and the state board of finance shall approve the sale of the bonds.

C. The revenue bonds may be issued in one or more series and shall mature not more than thirty years from their date. The net effective interest rate of the bonds shall not exceed the net effective interest rate as permitted by the Public Securities Act [6-14-1 through 6-14-3 NMSA 1978] in accordance with the terms and options of redemption authorized in the bond resolution adopted by the board.

D. The board:

(1) may pledge all or any part of its revenues, income or receipts from rentals, rates, charges, tuition and fees or other resources and revenues other than ad valorem tax proceeds for the payment of the bonds, including the payment of principal, interest and any other amounts required or permitted in connection with the bonds in accordance with the bond resolution;

(2) shall fix and collect those pledged rentals, rates, charges, tuition and fees in amounts that shall be at least sufficient, together with other pledged resources, to provide for all payments of principal, interest and any other amounts required in connection with the bonds; to provide for the payment of expenses in connection with the bonds; and, to the extent required by the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds, to provide for the payment of operation, maintenance and other expenses in connection with the property, buildings, structures, activities, services, operations or other facilities of the college district; and

(3) may establish and enforce parietal rules for students and others and enter into agreements regarding occupancy, use and availability of facilities and the amounts and collection of pledged revenues, income, receipts, rentals, rates, tuition and fees or other resources, to assure that all required payments and deposits shall be made pursuant to the bond resolution.

E. Fees for the use by or availability to the students of all or any property, buildings, structures, activities, services, operations or other facilities of the college district may be pledged to the payment of the bonds and shall be fixed and collected from all or any designated part of the students enrolled in the colleges of the college district in the amounts and in the manner determined and provided by the board in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds. Such fees:

(1) may be collected in the full amounts required or permitted under this section, without regard to actual use, availability or existence of any facility, commencing at any time designated by the board;

(2) may be fixed and collected for the use or availability of any specifically described property, buildings, structures, activities, services, operations or other facilities or may be fixed and collected as general fees for the general use or availability of the colleges of the college district; and

(3) whether fixed and collected as specific or general fees, may be pledged to the payment of any issue or series of bonds issued by the board, in the full amounts required or permitted under this section, in addition to and regardless of the existence of any other specific or general fees at the colleges of the college district; provided that the board may restrict its power to pledge such additional specific or general fees in any manner that may be provided in any resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds, and provided further that no such additional specific fees shall be pledged if prohibited by any resolution that authorized the issuance of the bonds that are outstanding at the time of such pledge.

F. A board of a college district may by bond resolution provide for the issuance of refunding bonds to refund any outstanding bonds issued under the College District Tax Act, together with redemption premiums, if any, and interest accrued or to accrue on such bonds. Provisions governing the issuance and sale of bonds under the College District Tax Act govern the issuance and sale of refunding bonds insofar as applicable. Refunding bonds may be exchanged for the outstanding bonds or may be sold and the proceeds used to retire the outstanding bonds. Pending the application of the proceeds of any such refunding bonds with any other available funds to the payment of principal, interest and any redemption premiums on the bonds being refunded, and if so provided or permitted in the bond resolution of the board authorizing the issuance of such refunding bonds to the payment of any interest on such refunding bonds and any expenses incurred in connection with such refunding, such proceeds may be placed in escrow and invested in securities that are unconditionally guaranteed by the United States and that shall mature or that shall be subject to redemption by the holders of the bonds, at the option of the bondholders, not later than the respective dates when the proceeds together with the interest accruing on the bonds will be required for the purposes intended.

21-2A-13. College district lease-purchase arrangements; notice; process for approving lease-purchase arrangements; limitation of action.

A. When a college district contemplates entering into a lease-purchase arrangement payable in whole or in part from ad valorem taxes, the board, before initiating any proceedings for approval of such lease-purchase arrangement, shall forward to the higher education department a written notice of the proposed lease-purchase arrangement.

B. The higher education department, upon the receipt of the notice provided for in Subsection A of this section, shall furnish all necessary information with reference to the valuation, present outstanding bonded indebtedness, present outstanding lease-purchase arrangements and limitations as to tax rates and debt contracting power and other information useful to the board in the consideration of a proposed lease-purchase arrangement. Upon entering into a lease-purchase arrangement, the board shall prepare two true and complete transcripts of proceedings relating to the lease-purchase arrangement, one to be immediately filed with the higher education department and one to be kept by the board.

C. At a regular or special meeting called for the purpose of considering a lease-purchase arrangement, a board shall:

(1) make a determination of the necessity for lease-purchasing the educational technology equipment;

(2) determine the estimated cost of the equipment needed;

(3) review a summary of the terms of the proposed lease-purchase arrangement;

(4) identify the source of funds for the payment of debt;

(5) if all or part of the funds needed require or anticipate the imposition of an ad valorem tax, determine the estimated rate of the ad valorem tax and what, if any, the percentage increase in ad valorem taxes for all taxable property in the college district would be;

(6) set a date for a meeting to consider a resolution granting final approval to the lease-purchase arrangement; and

(7) direct that notice of the meeting provided for in Paragraph (6) of this subsection be published once each week for the two weeks immediately preceding the meeting in a newspaper having general circulation in the college district and that the notice include the information required in Paragraphs (1) through (5) of this subsection.

D. At a regular or special meeting called for the purpose of considering a lease-purchase arrangement as set forth in Subsection C of this section, a board may adopt an authorizing instrument in compliance with the requirements of Section 6-14-10.2 NMSA 1978. The requirements of Paragraphs (6) and (7) of Subsection C of this section shall not apply if the board adopts such an authorizing instrument.

E. At a meeting scheduled pursuant to Paragraph (6) of Subsection C of this section, the board may adopt a final resolution approving the lease-purchase arrangement only by an affirmative vote of a majority of all members of the board.

F. After the adoption by the board of a final resolution approving the lease-purchase arrangement or after the final approval of a lease-purchase arrangement by delegation as provided for in Subsection D of this section, the board shall publish notice of the adoption of the resolution or the approval of the lease-purchase arrangement once in a newspaper having general circulation in the college district. After the passage of thirty days from the publication required by this subsection, any action attacking the validity of the proceedings taken by the board preliminary to, in the authorization of and entering into the lease-purchase arrangement described in the notice is perpetually barred.

21-2A-14. College district lease-purchase arrangements; tax levy; terms of lease-purchase arrangements; refunding or refinancing.

A. The officials charged by law with the duty of levying ad valorem taxes for the payment of bonds and interest shall, in the manner provided by law, make an annual levy sufficient to meet the payments due on lease-purchase arrangements. Annual payments due on lease-purchase arrangements may be combined with other college district general obligation debt when determining the annual debt service tax levy pursuant to Section 7-37-8 NMSA 1978 and the College District Tax Act. This annual debt service tax levy shall not exceed five dollars ($5.00) per one thousand dollars ($1,000) of taxable value; provided, however, that this limitation may be exceeded in any year in which the valuation of property in the college district declines to a level lower than the valuation of property in the year in which the applicable debt was issued. Nothing in the College District Tax Act shall be so construed as to prevent a college district from applying any other legally available funds, including funds that may be in its general fund or investment income actually received from investments, to the payments due on or any prepayment premium payable in connection with such lease-purchase arrangements as the same become due, and, upon such payments, the levy or levies provided for in this section may, to that extent, be reduced.

B. Lease-purchase arrangements may:

- (1) have interest, appreciated principal value, or any part thereof, payable at intervals or at maturity as may be determined by the board;
- (2) be subject to prior redemption or prepayment at the option of the board at such time or times and upon such terms and conditions with or without the payment of such premium or premiums as may be determined by the board;
- (3) have a final payment date or mature at any time or times not exceeding five years after the date of issuance;
- (4) be payable at one time or in installments or may be in such other form as may be determined by the board;
- (5) be priced at, above or below par and at a price that results in a net effective interest rate that does not exceed the maximum permitted by the Public Securities Act [6-14-1 through 6-14-3 NMSA 1978]; and
- (6) be sold or issued at public sale, negotiated sale or private sale to the New Mexico finance authority.

C. The board shall not adopt a resolution for or approve a lease-purchase arrangement that exceeds five years or creates a total general obligation indebtedness in the college district which, when combined with other outstanding college district general obligation debt, exceeds three percent of the assessed valuation of the taxable property within the college district as shown in the preceding general assessment.

D. College districts are authorized to enter into lease-purchase arrangements for the purpose of refunding or refinancing any lease-purchase arrangements then outstanding, including the payment of any prepayment of redemption premiums thereon and any interest accrued or to accrue to the date of purchase, prepayment, redemption or maturity of the outstanding lease-purchase arrangements. Until the proceeds of the lease-purchase arrangements issued for the purpose of refunding or refinancing outstanding lease-purchase arrangements are applied to the purchase, prepayment, redemption or retirement of the outstanding lease-purchase arrangements, the proceeds may be placed in escrow and invested and reinvested. The interest, income and profits, if any, earned or realized on any such investment may, in the discretion of the board, also be applied to the payment of the outstanding lease-purchase arrangements to be refunded or refinanced by purchase, prepayment, redemption or retirement, as the case may be. After the terms of the escrow have been fully satisfied and carried out, any balance of such proceeds and interest, if any, earned or realized on the investments thereof may be returned to the board to be used for payment of the refunding or refinancing lease-purchase arrangement. All such refunding or refinancing lease-purchase arrangements shall be entered into under, secured and subject to the provisions of the College District Tax Act in the same manner and to the same extent as any other lease-purchase arrangements entered into pursuant to that act.

History: Laws 2019, ch. 252, § 3.

Emergency clauses. — Laws 2019, ch. 252, § 7 contained an emergency clause and was approved April 4, 2019.

21-2A-15. College district lease-purchase arrangements; agreement of the state; legal investments; tax exemption; cumulative and complete authority.

A. The state does hereby pledge to and agree with the holders of any lease-purchase arrangement entered into pursuant to the College District Tax Act that the state will not limit or alter the rights hereby vested in college districts to fulfill the terms of any lease-purchase arrangement or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the holders of lease-purchase arrangements until the payments due thereon, and all costs and expenses in connection with any action or proceedings by or on behalf of those holders, are fully met and discharged. College districts are authorized to include this pledge and agreement of the state in any lease-purchase arrangement.

B. Lease-purchase arrangements entered into pursuant to the College District Tax Act shall be legal investments in which all insurance companies, banks and savings and loan associations organized under the laws of the state, public officers and public bodies and all administrators, guardians, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries may properly and legally invest funds.

C. The state covenants with the purchasers and all subsequent holders and transferees of lease-purchase arrangements entered into by boards, in consideration of the acceptance of and payment for the lease-purchase arrangements entered into pursuant to the College District Tax Act, that lease-purchase arrangements and the income from the lease-purchase arrangements shall at all times be free from taxation by the state, except for estate or gift taxes and taxes on transfers.

D. The College District Tax Act shall be deemed to provide an additional and alternative method for acquiring educational technology equipment and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other laws and shall not be regarded as a derogation of any powers now existing. The College District Tax Act shall be deemed to provide complete authority for acquiring educational technology equipment and entering into lease-purchase arrangements. No other approval of any state agency or officer, except as provided in that act, shall be required with respect to any lease-purchase arrangements, and the board acting pursuant to provisions of that act need not comply with the requirements of any other law applicable to the issuance of debt by college districts; provided, however, that a board may submit to a vote of qualified electors of the college district the question of creating debt by entering into a lease-purchase arrangement; and provided further that the board shall abide by the vote of the majority of those persons voting on the question.

to control the use thereof through the power of appropriation. State ex rel. Sego v. Kirkpatrick, 1974-NMSC-059, 86 N.M. 359, 524 P.2d 975.

ANNOTATIONS

Employee must comply with internal grievance procedures. — An employee must substantially comply with mandatory internal grievance procedures contained in an employee manual or handbook before filing suit for breach of contract claims based on an alleged failure of an employer to follow its employment policies. Lucero v. UNM Board of Regents, 2012-NMCA-055, 278 P.3d 1043, cert. denied, 2012-NMCERT-004.

Where a university manager was terminated by the university; the manager did not follow the grievance process contained in the university's employee handbook by filing a grievance; the handbook governed the manager's employment with the university; and the manager filed an action in district court for breach of contract and wrongful termination alleging that the employee handbook created a contract and that the university breached the contract by failing to abide by the handbook's policies and procedures governing workplace performance, disciplinary action, a harassment-free workplace, employer-employee relations, progressive discipline and by disciplining the manager without just cause, the manager's claims were barred because the manager failed to exhaust the handbook's internal grievance procedures before filing the breach of contract action based on an alleged failure of the university to follow policies in the handbook. Lucero v. UNM Board of Regents, 2012-NMCA-055, 278 P.3d 1043, cert. denied, 2012-NMCERT-004.

Implied powers also possessed. — The board of regents possesses, in addition to the express powers given, those which although not expressly stated are necessarily implied in order that the objects and purposes of the institution may be fully attained. 1955-56 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 6169.

Power to designate jury duty as vacation. — The duly constituted board of regents of the school for the deaf is authorized to make decisions according to its sound judgment. It may, or it may not, designate absence of a school employee for jury duty as a vacation period during which time the employee will receive regular pay. 1961-62 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 62-73 (see Section 38-5-18 NMSA 1978).

Scope and effect of statutory powers. — The New Mexico school for the deaf is not subject to the Personnel Act (see 10-9-1 NMSA 1978 and notes thereto). Rather, the control of its employees and the appropriations for the school are placed in the hands of the board of regents of that school under this section, which authorizes the board to make rules and regulations governing the institution. 1961-62 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 62-73.

21-6-2. Purposes; admission age; admission of nonresidents; tuition; change of name; expenditures for graduates in college; audiological clinic; scholarships; president's powers.

A. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the New Mexico school for the deaf shall be devoted exclusively to the care and instruction of persons of either sex who are residents within the state and between the ages of five years and the age of majority and who are deaf or hard-of-hearing; provided that the board of regents, in its discretion, may admit residents of this state who have attained the age of one year for daytime care and instruction, but not for residential purposes, and may also admit residents of this state who are over the age of majority.

B. The board of regents may make expenditures for undergraduate collegiate expenses of graduates of the New Mexico school for the deaf. The board of regents may permit the use of facilities of the school by public and private agencies in the state in carrying on a conservation-of-hearing program when the agencies participate in the cost of the operation, upon such terms and conditions as the board of regents may prescribe.

C. The board of regents may contract with the veterans' administration and the vocational rehabilitation division of the public education department to provide instruction for adults with a disability in vocations or lip reading taught at the school, but such adults may not be housed at the school. The board of regents may lease for a nominal sum for periods not to exceed three months to the public schools, institutions and agencies of the state any hearing test equipment owned by the school.

D. The board of regents, for the purpose of creating a source of teachers of the deaf, may pay tuition and other necessary expenses of graduates of New Mexico colleges desiring to take training to teach the deaf in out-of-state training centers and intending to make the teaching of the deaf in New Mexico their profession.

E. All instruction shall be free. Deaf or hard-of-hearing children from other states or territories may be received and educated in the school under such rules and regulations as the board of regents may prescribe, but in no event shall such children be admitted except upon the payment or guaranty of at least one thousand dollars ($1,000) for the school year, on the basis of nine months for a school year. The president of the board of regents is authorized to make and enter into on behalf of the school all necessary agreements and contracts with the United States government and the proper authorities of other states and territories for the reception and education of such children, and the president is further authorized to receive and receipt for all money paid upon such account and to endorse and transfer all checks, vouchers or other evidences of payment made or received in behalf of the school.

The 2007 amendment, effective June 15, 2007, amended the section to make non-substantive language changes.

ANNOTATIONS

Scope of power to care. — The board of the deaf school (New Mexico school for the deaf) is vested by law with power to care for children under its control and to provide food, clothing, quarters, medical and such other care as may be necessary to the children's welfare. 1945-46 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 45-4803.

Power to spend funds limited. — The statute's language would seem to preclude the power to spend the funds of the institution in instructing other than those persons in the institution. The legislature did not intend that personnel from school be dispatched, at institution expense, to places outside the school to prepare others in communicating and otherwise being able to get along with students from the school. 1955-56 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 55-6170.

Meaning of "resident". — The term "resident" as used in this statute means a person who maintains his "domicile" in this state. Domicile is defined as that place where a person maintains his residence with the intention to live there indefinitely. Once established he may leave it and the place may remain his domicile if he intends to return. 1955-56 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 55-6302.

Effect of absence from state for military service. — Mere absence from this state by reason of being in the military service does not change that person's domicile in New Mexico, and thus his or her children would be eligible for admission without payment of the nonresident fee. 1955-56 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 55-6302.

Effect of mere presence by nonresident. — The mere presence of a soldier or sailor from another state at a post in New Mexico does not by that fact alone establish his residence here and for that reason his or her children would not be eligible for admission without payment of a nonresident fee. However, such a person could establish his residence here. 1955-56 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 55-6302.

21-6-3. [Reports by clerks of school districts and boards of education; notice to parents; transportation; compulsory attendance; noncompliance; penalty.]

It is hereby made the duty of the clerks of all school districts and boards of education within the state of New Mexico, to report to the school superintendent of their respective counties, the names, age, sex and residence of all deaf or hard-of-hearing persons of school age residing within their respective districts together with the post-office address of the parents or guardians of such children, this report to be incorporated in the regular report from such school district at the time provided by laws; and it shall be the duty of such school superintendent to at once send a report to the superintendent of the New Mexico school for the deaf, including the names and addresses of all such children within this county.

It shall then be the duty of the superintendent of the New Mexico school for the deaf to at once notify the parents or guardians of such children to send the same to this school for proper instruction at a time to be fixed by him.

If the parent or guardian of any such child shall make a statement that by reason of his limited financial circumstances he is unable to suitably clothe such child and provide means of transportation for it from its home to such school, or provide for medical care for said child, and a representative of the state department of public welfare or the county superintendent of schools, or the superintendent of any city, town, village or consolidated school, of such county in which the child lives shall certify that such is the fact, then and in that case the superintendent of the New Mexico school for the deaf is authorized to draw a voucher upon the board of trustees for a sufficient amount of money to suitably clothe such child and pay for its transportation to this school and provide for medical care for such child, which voucher shall be honored by such board, and such child shall thereupon be sent by its parents or guardian to such school for instruction; provided that the above statement and certificate shall be renewed each year. The provisions of the laws of New Mexico in regard to compulsory attendance upon the public schools shall be applicable to attendance upon some school for the deaf or the hard of hearing, and the school directors of the several districts are hereby required and directed to enforce the same with regard to this school in the same manner as is provided by those laws for enforcing attendance upon the district schools.

Any failure on the part of any person hereinbefore mentioned to comply with the duties herein provided shall be deemed a misdemeanor and punished as such.

Employee must comply with internal grievance procedures. — An employee must substantially comply with mandatory internal grievance procedures contained in an employee manual or handbook before filing suit for breach of contract claims based on an alleged failure of an employer to follow its employment policies. Lucero v. UNM Board of Regents, 2012-NMCA-055, 278 P.3d 1043, cert. denied, 2012-NMCERT-004.

Where a university manager was terminated by the university; the manager did not follow the grievance process contained in the university's employee handbook by filing a grievance; the handbook governed the manager's employment with the university; and the manager filed an action in district court for breach of contract and wrongful termination alleging that the employee handbook created a contract and that the university breached the contract by failing to abide by the handbook's policies and procedures governing workplace performance, disciplinary action, a harassment-free workplace, employer-employee relations, progressive discipline and by disciplining the manager without just cause, the manager's claims were barred because the manager failed to exhaust the handbook's internal grievance procedures before filing the breach of contract action based on an alleged failure of the university to follow policies in the handbook. Lucero v. UNM Board of Regents, 2012-NMCA-055, 278 P.3d 1043, cert. denied, 2012-NMCERT-004.

Independence of board of regents. — The board of regents is an independent governing body which has a very real, though somewhat ill-defined, independence from outside control. The reason for the regents' autonomy is to assure that the educational process is free of interference from the capricious whims of the political process. Regents of the Univ. of N.M. v. N.M. Fed'n of Teachers, 1998-NMSC-020, 125 N.M. 401, 962 P.2d 1236.

Constitutionality of Public Employees Bargaining Act. — The Public Employees Bargaining Act, compiled in Chapter 10, Article 7E, which requires government entities, including the University of New Mexico, to allow all employees except those specifically exempted by that act to engage in collective bargaining, does not violate the autonomy of the University's Board of Regents as granted by N.M. Const., art. 12, § 13. Regents of Univ. of N.M. v. N.M. Fed'n of Teachers, 1998-NMSC-020, 125 N.M. 401, 962 P.2d 1236.

Legislative intent. — In establishing the university of New Mexico, the legislature contemplated that the regents would exercise ultimate authority in the management and control of the university. 1969 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 69-104.

Review and approval of actions below. — The explicit references in 21-7-8 and 21-7-9 NMSA 1978 to the regents' duties and responsibilities require that the board review and approve the actions taken below in exercise of limited power to immediate government. 1969 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 69-104.

Duty to review mandatory. — The regents' duty of review and approval of actions below is mandatory and cannot be waived or circumvented by the board. 1969 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 69-104.

Traffic control jurisdiction. — The board of regents of the university of New Mexico is specifically given traffic control jurisdiction on its property and may employ and assign duties of campus security officers for the institution. 1969 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 69-48.

Limited applicability of city's ordinances. — Ordinances of the city of Albuquerque dealing with crimes do not apply to land under the control of the board of regents of the university of New Mexico except for traffic offenses as provided in 35-14-2 NMSA 1978. 1969 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 69-48.

ANNOTATIONS

Regulation of student conduct. — The power to control, manage and govern the New Mexico state university is vested in the regents, the proper exercise of which necessarily includes the exercise of broad discretion. An inherent part of the power is that of requiring students to adhere to generally accepted standards of conduct, and the prohibition embodied in the regulation in question forbidding visitation by persons of the opposite sex in residence hall or dormitory bedrooms is consistent with generally accepted standards of conduct. Futrell v. Ahrens, 1975-NMSC-044, 88 N.M. 284, 540 P.2d 214.

Of visitation in university bedrooms. — A regulation of the board of regents of the New Mexico state university which limits visitation by persons of the opposite sex in residence hall or dormitory bedrooms maintained by the regents on the university campus, does not interfere appreciably, if at all, with the intercommunication important to the students of the university. The regulation is reasonable, serves legitimate educational purposes and promotes the welfare of the students at the university. Futrell v. Ahrens, 1975-NMSC-044, 88 N.M. 284, 540 P.2d 214.

K. The tax rolls of the school districts comprising the off-campus instruction program district shall be adopted as the tax rolls of the off-campus instruction program district.

21-16-1. Short title.

Chapter 21, Article 16 NMSA 1978 may be cited as the "Technical and Vocational Institute Act".

History: 1953 Comp., § 73-34-1, enacted by Laws 1963, ch. 108, § 1; 1994, ch. 83, § 1.

The 1994 amendment, effective May 18, 1994, substituted "Chapter 21, Article 16 NMSA 1978" for "This act".

21-16-2. Definitions.

As used in Chapter 21, Article 16 NMSA 1978:

A. "technical and vocational institute" means a public educational institution, including a post-secondary educational institution organized before July 1, 1999 as an area vocational school pursuant to Chapter 21, Article 17 NMSA 1978 [repealed] that provides not to exceed two years of vocational and technical curricula and, in addition, some appropriate courses and programs in the arts and sciences;

B. "board" means the governing board of the district;

C. "full-time equivalent student" means that term as it is defined in Section 21-16-9 NMSA 1978 [repealed];

D. "school district" means that term as it is defined in Subsection J [Subsection R] of Section 22-1-2 NMSA 1978; and

E. "district" means a technical and vocational institute district.

History: 1953 Comp., § 73-34-2, enacted by Laws 1963, ch. 108, § 2; 1999, ch. 219, § 11.

Bracketed material. — The bracketed material was inserted by the compiler and is not part of the law.

Laws 1999, ch. 219 § 21 repealed 21-17-1 to 21-17-7, 21-17-9, 21-17-11, 21-17-12, and 21-17-14 to 21-17-17 NMSA 1978, effective July 1, 1999.

Laws 1999, ch. 219, § 21 repealed 21-16-9 NMSA 1978, effective July 1, 1999.

The reference to Subsection J of Section 22-1-2 NMSA, in Subsection D, probably should be to Subsection R of Section 22-1-2 NMSA 1978.

The 1999 amendment, effective July 1, 1999, rewrote this section, adding a definition of "district" and deleting a definition of "part-time student-equivalent".

Positions of legislator and president of a technical and vocational institute are not incompatible.

The position of president of a technical and vocational institute is not a civil office or a state office and the positions of state legislator and president of a technical vocational institute are not necessarily physically and/or functionally incompatible. Consequently, a legislator may serve as president of a technical and vocational institute without resigning office and without violating N.M. Const. art. 4, § 3 or 28, Section 2-1-3 NMSA 1978, or any other provision of law regarding incompatibility. 2006 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 06-01.

Entertainment, travel, and meal expenditures.

Officials and employees of a technical-vocational institute may, within limitations, spend public money for certain entertainment, meals, travel, and membership expenses without violating the antidonation clause (N.M. Const., art. 9, § 14) if the expenditures are demonstrably related to the institute's constitutionally or statutorily authorized functions and do not amount to a subsidy of private individuals or businesses. 1997 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 97-02.

Scholarships out of public money permitted.

Based on its authority to provide and charge tuition for educational services, a technical-vocational institute may, consistently with the antidonation clause (N.M. Const., art. 9, § 14), use public money for scholarships in the form of tuition waivers or reductions if the criteria used to award them are education-related and applied in a reasonable and even-handed manner. Past opinions suggesting that scholarship awards violate the antidonation clause are overruled to the extent they limit scholarships to those paid from private or federal sources. 1997 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 97-02.

Compiler's notes. — Laws 2005, ch. 102 is contingent upon an "appropriation for development training in the General Appropriations Act of 2005". The General Appropriations Act of 2005 does not provide for an appropriation for development training, but rather authorizes use of cash balances in the "development training fund". The actual appropriation of funds from the "development training fund" is provided by 21-19-11 NMSA 1978 and not the General Appropriations Act of 2005. Section 21-19-11 NMSA 1978 provides that "Money appropriated to the fund or accruing to it through gifts, grants, repayments or bequests shall not be transferred to any other fund or be encumbered or disbursed in any manner except as provided in Section 21-19-7 NMSA 1978." Laws 2005, ch. 33, Subsection D of § 4 of the General Appropriations Act of 2005 provides as follows: "Notwithstanding Section 21-19-7 NMSA 1978 and Section 21-9-7.1 NMSA 1978, the economic development department may use up to five percent of the cash balances in the development training fund as of December 31, 2004 for skill-enhancement training and pre-employment training programs for the film and multimedia industry." This is not actually an appropriation by an authorization to use funds appropriated by Section 21-19-11 NMSA 1978. The prohibition against using funds for another purpose is found in 21-19-11 NMSA 1978 and not 21-19-7 or 21-9-7 NMSA 1978.

The 2003 amendment, effective January 1, 2004, in Subsection A, deleted "the particular company" and "shall be" following "designed for" in the second sentence; and added Paragraph F(9).

The 1999 amendment, effective June 18, 1999, added the proviso at the end of the introductory language in Paragraph F(2) and added Subparagraphs F(2)(a) through F(2)(d).

The 1997 amendment, effective April 8, 1997, made a minor stylistic change in Subsection B; substituted

"economic development division of the economic development department" for "vocational education division of the state department of public education" in Subsection D; added Subsection E and redesignated former Subsection E as F; and substituted "of legal status for employment" for "citizens of the United States" in Paragraph F(1).

  - (a) approved by the New Mexico film division pursuant to Subsection A of this section; and
  - (b) employed by the production company in a film or multimedia production in New Mexico;

B. The New Mexico film division of the economic development department shall establish a film and multimedia preemployment training program to furnish qualified manpower resources for the film and multimedia industry. The New Mexico film division shall adopt rules implementing the preemployment training program.

History: Laws 2003, ch. 353, § 2; 2005, ch. 102, § 2.

The 2005 amendment, effective April 4, 2005, provided in Subsection A(1)(b) that the rules shall provide for pre-approval of personnel who have participated in on-the-job training; deleted the labor department as a sponsor of training courses in Subsection A(1)(b); changed "economic development division" to "New Mexico film division" in Subsection A(2), (3) and (4); and added Subsection B which provides for a film and multimedia pre-employment training program.

Compiler's notes. — Laws 2005, ch. 102, is contingent upon an "appropriation for development training in the General Appropriations Act of 2005". The General Appropriations Act of 2005 does not provide for an appropriation for development training, but rather authorizes use of cash balances in the "development training fund". The actual appropriation of funds from the "development training fund" is provided by 21-19-11 NMSA 1978 and not the General Appropriations Act of 2005. Section 21-19-11 NMSA 1978 provides that "Money appropriated to the fund or accruing to it through gifts, grants, repayments or bequests shall not be transferred to any other fund or be encumbered or disbursed in any manner except as provided in Section 21-19-7 NMSA 1978." Laws 2005, ch. 33, Subsection D of § 4 of the General Appropriations Act of 2005 provides as follows: "Notwithstanding Section 21-19-7 NMSA 1978 and Section 21-9-7.1 NMSA 1978, the economic development department may use up to five percent of the cash balances in the development training fund as of December 31, 2004 for skill-enhancement training and pre-employment training programs for the film and multimedia industry." This is not actually an appropriation by an authorization to use funds appropriated by Section 21-19-11 NMSA 1978. The prohibition against using funds for another purpose is found in 21-19-11 NMSA 1978 and not 21-19-7 or 21-9-7 NMSA 1978.

21-19-8. Repealed.

21-21C-5. Grants; procedures.

Student choice grants shall be awarded in the following manner, subject to rules and regulations promulgated under Section 21-21C-8 NMSA 1978:

A. the student desiring a student choice grant shall be entitled to a student choice grant upon a determination by the commission on higher education [higher education department] that:

(1) the student is enrolled or shall be enrolled, at the time the student choice grant is awarded and disbursed, at an institution for at least six semester credit hours in a program leading to a degree;

(2) the student is in satisfactory academic standing in the institution or is making his first application to the institution;

(3) the student is a New Mexico resident, as that term is defined for the purpose of determining whether resident or nonresident fees are to be paid to a state institution of higher education; and

(4) considering the other resources reasonably available to the student, the grant, in its proposed amount, is probably necessary for the student to begin or continue his education;

B. on or before the date the student choice grant is awarded, the student shall provide to the commission on higher education [higher education department] written authorization, approved by the institution in which the student is enrolled, granting to the commission [department] authority to inspect any of the academic or financial records of the student which are held by that institution and which are necessary to the proper administration of the provisions of the Student Choice Act, and further agreeing that any refund of tuition due to a student who withdraws shall be paid directly to the commission [department];

The hourly rate shall be calculated by taking the general fund appropriations for instruction and general purposes for the university of New Mexico, New Mexico state university, New Mexico highlands university, eastern New Mexico university and western New Mexico university for the fiscal year in which the student choice grant is to be made, subtracting from that sum the portion deemed by the commission [department] to be attributable to other than undergraduate education and dividing by the aggregate number of undergraduate credit hours which were used in the calculation by the board of the general fund appropriations. If the hourly rate calculated under this subsection exceeds the tuition rate at any institution, then the hourly rate for purposes of calculating a student choice grant at that institution shall be the institution's hourly tuition rate;

D. a student choice grant to a part-time student shall be proportional to the student choice grant paid to a full-time student, based on the ratio of part-time credit hours to full-time credit hours;

E. if the money in the student choice fund is less than the amount needed to make the student choice grants in the amounts determined by the commission on higher education [higher education department], each grant to each student shall be reduced proportionally so as to utilize the full amount in the student choice fund; and

F. if a student withdraws or drops below full-time student status and is entitled to a refund for any tuition as determined by each institution's refund policy, the student shall pay to the commission on higher education [higher education department], as a refund of the student choice grant, the amount of any refund to which he is entitled from the institution, not to exceed the amount of the student choice grant awarded to that student.

A. The "college savings program" is created to allow interested persons to enter into college investment agreements with the board as a means to save money to pay a beneficiary's eligible expenses for a college education. The college savings program may consist of one or more college savings plans. The board shall administer the college savings program through accounts established in the education trust fund pursuant to college investment agreements. Money in an account may be used by the beneficiary at any eligible institution of higher education in New Mexico or any other state.

B. C. The "education trust fund" is created as a nonreverting fund in the state treasury. The fund shall be administered by the board to carry out the college savings program. The fund consists of all administrative and other fees received by the board pursuant to college investment agreements and contracts with managers and any other money credited to the fund. The state treasurer shall invest the fund, and the investment income shall be credited to the fund. Money in the fund may be used to pay costs of establishing, marketing and otherwise administering the college savings program in accordance with the Education Trust Act. Disbursements from the fund shall be by warrants of the secretary of finance and administration on vouchers signed by the director of the board or the director's authorized representative.

Cross references. — For the federal Internal Revenue Code, see 26 U.S.C.S. § 1 et seq.

The 1999 amendment, effective June 18, 1999, in Subsection A, inserted "The board shall provide that" and "either", deleted "and regulations" following "state investment officer according to rules", and substituted "or by a private investment advisor, approved by the council, pursuant to a contract between the board and the investment advisor" for "for the investment of funds pursuant to the Education Trust Act" in the seventh sentence; deleted former Subsection C and redesignated former Subsection D as present Subsection C; and, in Subsection C, added the last sentence.

ANNOTATIONS

Sovereign immunity. — Subsection C of Section 21-21K-3 NMSA 1978 does not include an express or an implied grant of sovereign immunity. Lu v. Education Trust Bd. of N.M., 2013-NMCA-010, 293 P.3d 186.

Where investors, who had entered into contracts with the defendants to participate in the state's qualified higher education tuition programs, sued defendants, including the state, for breach of contract for mismanaging the investors' investments; and the state argued that the provision of Subsection C of Section 21-21K-3 NMSA 1978 which limits the source of recovery to the education trust fund overrides Subsection A of Section 37-1-23 NMSA 1978 which waives governmental immunity for written contracts, the state was not immune from suit because Subsection C of Section 21-21K-3 NMSA 1978 places limits on liability and identifies sources of recovery, but does not expressly or impliedly grant sovereign immunity. Lu v. Education Trust Bd. of N.M., 2013-NMCA-010, 293 P.3d 186.

The community outreach shall consist of:

(1) partnering with community-based organizations and assisting with community-based projects;

(2) mentoring public school students; or

(3) mentoring first-year college students.

G. The following schedule of community outreach for student volunteers is:

(1) students in their first program semester shall partner with a community-based organization to assist it in community outreach or specific community-based projects;

(2) students in their sophomore and junior years shall mentor students in grades kindergarten through twelve; and

H. If a tuition scholarship student who wants to participate is unable to perform the community outreach service during the school year because of class load, work requirements or other reasons, the student volunteer may volunteer for an approved community outreach project that will be available for the student to participate in during semester breaks or the summer for a total of at least thirty-two hours.

I. Public schools that choose to participate in the pilot project shall identify willing students who would benefit from participation. The student's teacher or school principal shall work with the nonprofit organization and the student volunteer to determine what activities and types of engagement would benefit the mentee student.

J. The department shall establish reporting and evaluation requirements for all participants in the pilot project. The department shall provide interim and final reports annually to the governor and the legislature.

K. The participating public post-secondary educational institutions, tribal colleges, nonprofit community- and education-oriented organizations and public schools shall actively seek public and private grants and donations for any costs of the pilot project. If the commission [department] does not find acceptable extenuating circumstances for the student's failure to carry out his declared intent to serve in a health professional shortage area in the state, the commission [department] shall require immediate repayment of the loan plus the amount of any interest and penalty assessed pursuant to this subsection.

B. The loan shall not exceed the necessary expenses incurred while attending a New Mexico osteopathic medical school or college or osteopathic physician's assistant program and shall bear interest at the rate of:

(1) eighteen percent per year if the loan recipient completes an osteopathic medical education and no portion of the principal and interest is forgiven pursuant to Subsection F of this section; and

C. Loans made pursuant to the Osteopathic Medical Student Loan for Service Act shall not accrue interest until the department:

H. If a loan recipient completes a professional education and does not meet all requirements of this section, the department shall assess a penalty of up to three times the principal due, plus eighteen percent interest, unless the department finds acceptable extenuating circumstances for why the requirements should be waived. If the department does not find acceptable extenuating circumstances for the loan recipient's failure to meet the requirements of this section, the department shall require immediate repayment of the loan plus the amount of any interest and penalty assessed pursuant to this section.

Pursuant to 12-1-8 NMSA 1978, Laws 2013, ch. 75, § 12, as the last act signed by the governor, is set out above and incorporates both amendments. The amendments enacted by Laws 2013, ch. 59, § 14 and Laws 2013, ch. 75, § 12 are described below. To view the session laws in their entirety, see the 2013 session laws on NMOneSource.com.

The nature of the difference between the amendments is that Laws 2013, ch. 59, § 14 replaced "commission" with "department" and Laws 2013, ch. 75, § 12 replaced "commission" with "higher education department".

Laws 2013, ch. 75, § 12, effective July 1, 2013, assigned administration of the Post-Secondary Educational Institution Act to the department of higher education and required the secretary of state to assist the department

When the Uniform Licensing Act refers to the process of examination, that process means the process of application for the purposes of the administration of the Post-Secondary Educational Institution Act.

History: 1953 Comp., § 73-40-12, enacted by Laws 1975, ch. 148, § 13; 1994, ch. 108, § 17; 2013, ch. 59, § 15.

The 2013 amendment, effective June 14, 2013, changed terms to assign administration of the Post-Secondary Educational Institution Act to the higher education department; and in the first sentence, at the beginning of the sentence, deleted "commission" and added "department".

The 1994 amendment, effective July 1, 1994, substituted "commission" for "board" near the beginning of the section and "means" for "shall mean" near the end of the section.

The issuance of a license by the department does not constitute accreditation by it for any purpose. Any representation to the contrary is a misrepresentation for the purposes of Section 21-23-10 NMSA 1978 and is prohibited.

21-30-3. Issuance of bonds.

The state further pledges that any law authorizing the imposition of the athletic facility surcharge and the dedication of revenues to the fund shall not be amended or repealed or otherwise modified so as to impair the bonds to which the fund is dedicated as provided in this section. The university shall not repeal, amend or otherwise modify the bond resolution or the resolution imposing the athletic facility surcharge in such a manner that adversely affects or impairs the athletic facility surcharge or any bonds secured by a pledge of the athletic facility revenues and athletic facility surcharge receipts unless the bonds have been paid in full or provisions have been made for full payment.

Compiler's notes. — Laws 2003, ch. 143, § 3 would have repealed Article 1 of Chapter 22 NMSA 1978 effective July 1, 2004. The repeal of this article of Chapter 22 was contingent upon the adoption of an amendment to Article 12, Section 6 of the constitution, which was approved at a special election held September 23, 2003. However, the repeal of Article 1 did not take effect, as prior to the July 1, 2004 effective date of the repeal of this article, Laws 2004, ch. 27, § 29, effective May 19, 2004, repealed Laws 2003, ch. 143, § 3.

The 2003 amendment, effective April 4, 2003, substituted "22 NMSA 1978" for "77 NMSA 1953" following "Chapter" at the beginning of the section.

22-1-1.1. Legislative findings and purpose.

A. The legislature finds that, although New Mexico has been in the forefront of educational reforms in many areas, additional improvements are necessary to enhance and upgrade the delivery of quality education in New Mexico.

B. The legislature further finds that enhancement of the educational system in New Mexico requires a renewed emphasis on the primary grades, recognizing especially the importance of the first grade to a child's future educational career.

C. The legislature further finds that teachers and administrators play a key role in any reform efforts and acknowledges their importance in the educational process.

D. The legislature further finds that the smorgasbord curriculum offered in many schools fails to provide students with the basic educational background necessary to provide them with indispensable life skills.

E. The legislature further finds that discipline in the schools is essential to provide an atmosphere conducive to effective learning.

F. It is the purpose of this reform legislation, among other things, to stress the importance of substantive academic subjects, provide for a greater emphasis on the primary grades, upgrade curriculum and graduation requirements, systematically evaluate instructional improvement and student progress, increase parental involvement in the public schools and recognize that teachers should be treated like other professionals.

History: Laws 1986, ch. 33, § 1.

22-1-1.2. Legislative findings and purpose.

A. The legislature finds that no education system can be sufficient for the education of all children unless it is founded on the sound principle that every child can learn and succeed and that the system must meet the needs of all children by recognizing that student success for every child is the fundamental goal.

B. The legislature finds further that the key to student success in New Mexico is to have a multicultural education system that:

(1) attracts and retains quality and diverse teachers to teach New Mexico's multicultural student population;

(2) holds teachers, students, schools, school districts and the state accountable;

(3) integrates the cultural strengths of its diverse student population into the curriculum with high expectations for all students;

(4) recognizes that cultural diversity in the state presents special challenges for policy-makers, administrators, teachers and students;

(5) provides students with a rigorous and relevant high school curriculum that prepares them to succeed in college and the workplace; and

(6) elevates the importance of public education in the state by clarifying the governance structure at different levels.

C. The legislature finds further that the teacher shortage in this country has affected the ability of New Mexico to compete for the best teachers and that, unless the state and school districts find ways to mentor beginning teachers, intervene with teachers while they still show promise, improve the job satisfaction of quality teachers and elevate the teaching profession by shifting to a professional educator licensing and salary system, public schools will be unable to recruit and retain the highest quality teachers in the teaching profession in New Mexico.

D. The legislature finds further that a well-designed, well-implemented and well-maintained assessment and accountability system is the linchpin of public school reform and must ensure that:

(1) students who do not meet or exceed expectations will be given individual attention and assistance through extended learning programs and individualized tutoring;

(2) students have accurate, useful information about their options and the adequacy of their preparation for post-secondary education, training or employment in order to set and achieve high goals;

(3) teachers who do not meet performance standards must improve their skills or they will not continue to be employed as teachers;

(4) public schools make progress toward educational excellence; and

(5) school districts and the state are prepared to actively intervene and improve failing public schools.

E. The legislature finds further that improving children's reading and writing abilities and literacy throughout their years in school must remain a priority of the state.

F. The legislature finds further that the public school governance structure needs to change to provide accountability from the bottom up instead of from the top down. Each school principal, with the help of school councils made up of parents and teachers, must be the instructional leader in the public school, motivating and holding accountable both teachers and students. Each local superintendent must function as the school district's chief executive officer and have responsibility for the day-to-day operations of the school district, including personnel and student disciplinary decisions.

G. It is the purpose of the 2003 public school reform legislation as augmented by this 2007 legislation to provide the framework to implement the legislative findings to ensure student success in New Mexico.

History: 1978 Comp., § 22-1-1.2, enacted by Laws 2003, ch. 153, § 2; 2007, ch. 307, § 1; 2007, ch. 308, § 1; 2015, ch. 58, § 1.

The 2015 amendment, effective June 19, 2015, removed references to adequate yearly progress; and in Subsection D, Paragraph (4), after "make", deleted "adequately yearly".

The 2007 amendment, added Paragraph (5) of Subsection B and Paragraph (2) of Subsection D. Laws 2007, ch. 307, § 1 enacted identical amendments to this section.

A. The secretary is the governing authority and shall have control, management and direction of all public schools, except as otherwise provided by law.

B. The department may:

- (1) adopt, promulgate and enforce rules to exercise its authority and the authority of the secretary;
- (2) enter into contracts to carry out its duties;
- (3) apply to the district court for an injunction, writ of mandamus or other appropriate relief to enforce the provisions of the Public School Code [Chapter 22 [except Article 5A] NMSA 1978] or rules promulgated pursuant to the Public School Code; and
- (4) waive provisions of the Public School Code as authorized by law.

History: 1978 Comp., § 22-2-1, enacted by Laws 1990 (1st S.S.), ch. 9, § 10; 1992, ch. 77, § 1; 1993, ch. 226, § 2; 2003, ch. 143, § 2; 2004, ch. 27, § 14.

Repeals and reenactments. — Laws 1990 (1st S.S.), ch. 9, § 10 repealed former 22-2-1 NMSA 1978, as amended by Laws 1990, ch. 52, § 1, and enacted a new section, effective June 18, 1990.

Cross references. — For constitutional provision relating to state board of education, see N.M. Const., art. XII, § 6. For the public education department and commission, see 9-24-5, 9-24-10 and 9-24-15 NMSA 1978.

The 2004 amendment, effective May 19, 2004, amended Subsection A to change "state board" to "secretary", amended Subsection B to change "state board" to "department", added a new Subparagraph (2) providing for the power of the department to enter into contracts and redesignated former Subsections C and D as Paragraphs (3) and (4) of Subsection B.

The 1992 amendment, effective May 20, 1992, inserted "or the purchase of instructional materials" in the first sentence of Subsection D and near the middle of Subsection E; and made minor stylistic changes throughout the section.

ANNOTATIONS

Authority of secretary of public education to revoke teachers' licenses. — Article XII, Section 6 of the New Mexico Constitution, the Uniform Licensing Act, Sections 61-1-1 et seq. NMSA 1978, the Public Education Department Act, Chapter 9, Article 24 NMSA 1978, the Public School Code, Chapter 22 NMSA 1978, and the School Personnel Act, Chapter 22, Article 10A NMSA 1978, do not preclude the secretary of public education from having exclusive authority to make the final decision to revoke a teacher's license. Skowronski v. N.M. Pub. Educ. Dep't, 2013-NMCA-034, 298 P.3d 469, cert. granted, 2013-NMCERT-003.

Secretary's authority to disregard hearing officer's credibility determination. — Where plaintiff was charged with engaging in inappropriate and improper sexual behavior with a fourteen-year-old victim at a charter school; a hearing officer found that the charges against plaintiff had not been proven by a preponderance of the evidence and recommended that the disciplinary action against plaintiff be dismissed; the secretary of public education reviewed the record before the hearing officer, adopted some of the hearing officer's recommendations and rejected others, and concluded that a preponderance of the evidence warranted revocation and revoked plaintiff's license to teach; the essential difference between the hearing officer's view of the case and that of the secretary was how they viewed the credibility of plaintiff and the victim and the believability of their testimony; the regulations of the public education department provided that the hearing officer had the duty to make proposed findings and conclusions; the secretary was not an appellate reviewer of the hearing officer's findings and conclusions, the secretary had the authority, after reviewing the record, to modify the hearing officer's findings and conclusions; and the secretary was ultimately responsible for issuing a final decision; and after reviewing the record, the secretary made independent findings of fact that were supported by references to the hearing transcript, the secretary did not exceed the secretary's authority by making the secretary's own credibility or fact-based determinations. Skowronski v. N.M. Pub. Educ. Dep't, 2013-NMCA-034, 298 P.3d 469, cert. granted, 2013-NMCERT-003.

Revocation of teacher's license did not violate due process. — Where plaintiff was charged with engaging in inappropriate and improper sexual behavior with a fourteen-year-old victim at a charter school; a hearing officer found that the charges against plaintiff had not been proven by a preponderance of the evidence, based in part on the credibility of the witnesses, and recommended that the disciplinary action against plaintiff be dismissed; the secretary of public education reviewed the record and concluded that a preponderance of the evidence warranted revocation; the secretary's conclusions were supported by the record and were based on the secretary's analysis of the facts presented by the witnesses, the contradictions in the facts, and the victim's written statement, plaintiff was not denied due process by the fact that the secretary failed to observe the witnesses' demeanor or by the secretary's failure to defer to the hearing officer's proposed findings of fact. Skowronski v. N.M. Pub. Educ. Dep't, 2013-NMCA-034, 298 P.3d 469, cert. granted, 2013-NMCERT-003.

Revocation of teacher's license was supported by substantial evidence. — Where plaintiff was charged with engaging in inappropriate and improper sexual behavior with a fourteen-year-old victim; the victim was considering attending the charter school; the owners and operators of the school, who were the godparents of the victim, hosted an event in their home; the victim and plaintiff stayed overnight and slept in the living room where the alleged contact occurred when the victim and plaintiff were alone, the decision of the secretary of public education to revoke plaintiff's teacher's license was supported by substantial evidence. Skowronski v. N.M. Pub. Educ. Dep't, 2013-NMCA-034, 298 P.3d 469, cert. granted, 2013-NMCERT-003.

State board has powers implied from statute. — The authority of the state board in the rule- or regulation-making context is not limited to those powers expressly granted by statute, but includes all powers that may be fairly implied therefrom. Redman v. Board of Regents, 1984-NMCA-117, 102 N.M. 234, 693 P.2d 1266, cert. denied, 102 N.M. 225, 693 P.2d 591 (1985).

Board may determine action not "good cause" for firing. — It is within the province of the state board to decide that a private affair between consenting adults, an assistant principal and a school secretary, is not "good and just cause" to fire an employee. Board of Educ. v. Jennings, 1982-NMCA-135, 98 N.M. 602, 651 P.2d 1037.

Legislative power as to duties of state board. — The authority granted the state board for the "control, management and direction of all public schools" under N.M. Const., art. XII, § 6 must be specifically defined by the legislature and the legislature may divest the state board of duties previously defined. N.M. Const., art. XII, § 6 does not, in itself, vest the state board with any particular duties and the legislature is empowered to determine the scope of the board's authority. 1977 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 77-06.

- D. students with disabilities; and
- E. poverty.

History: 1978 Comp., § 22-2A-5, enacted by Laws 2003, ch. 153, § 14; 2007, ch. 309, § 3; 2015, ch. 58, § 7.

Compiler's notes. — Laws 2003, ch. 153, §§ 10 to 20 were enacted as 22-2A-1 to 22-2A-11 NMSA 1978, but were relocated due to the existing Article 2A.

The 2015 amendment, effective June 19, 2015, removed references to adequate yearly progress; deleted the former catchline, "Student achievement ratings; calculations of adequate yearly progress" and added the current language; in the introductory paragraph, after

The 2007 amendment, effective June 15, 2007, changed "performance tests" to "assessments".

22-2C-6. Remediation programs; promotion policies; restrictions.

A. Remediation programs, academic improvement programs and promotion policies shall be aligned with school-district-determined assessment results and requirements of the state assessment and accountability program.

B. Local school boards shall approve school-district-developed remediation programs and academic improvement programs to provide special instructional assistance to students in grades one through eight who do not demonstrate academic proficiency. The cost of remediation programs and academic improvement programs shall be borne by the school district. Remediation programs and academic improvement programs shall be incorporated into the school district's educational plan for student success and filed with the department.

C. The cost of summer and extended day remediation programs and academic improvement programs offered in grades nine through twelve shall be borne by the parent; however, where parents are determined to be indigent according to guidelines established by the department, the school district shall bear those costs.

D. Diagnosis of weaknesses identified by a student's academic achievement may serve as criteria in assessing the need for remedial programs or retention.

E. A parent shall be notified no later than the end of the second grading period that the parent's child is not academically proficient, and a conference consisting of the parent and the teacher shall be held to discuss possible remediation programs available to assist the student in becoming academically proficient. Specific academic deficiencies and remediation strategies shall be explained to the student's parent and a written intervention plan developed containing time lines, academic expectations and the measurements to be used to verify that a student has overcome academic deficiencies. Remediation programs and academic improvement programs include tutoring, extended day or week programs, summer programs and other research-based interventions and models for student improvement.

F. At the end of grades one through seven, three options are available, dependent on a student's academic proficiency:

- (1) the student is academically proficient and shall enter the next higher grade;
- (2) the student is not academically proficient and shall participate in the required level of remediation. Upon certification by the school district that the student is academically proficient, the student shall enter the next higher grade; or

- (3) the student is not academically proficient after completion of the prescribed remediation program and upon the recommendation of the teacher and school principal shall either be:

- (a) retained in the same grade for no more than one school year with an academic improvement plan developed by the student assistance team in order to become academically proficient, at which time the student shall enter the next higher grade; or

- (b) promoted to the next grade if the parent refuses to allow the child to be retained pursuant to Subparagraph (a) of this paragraph. In this case, the parent shall sign a waiver indicating the parent's desire that the student be promoted to the next higher grade with an academic improvement plan designed to address specific academic deficiencies. The academic improvement plan shall be developed by the student assistance team outlining time lines and monitoring activities to ensure progress toward overcoming those academic deficiencies. Students failing to become academically proficient at the end of that year as measured by grades, performance on school district assessments and other measures identified by the school district shall be retained in the same grade for no more than one year in order to have additional time to achieve academic proficiency.

G. At the end of the eighth grade, a student who is not academically proficient shall be retained in the eighth grade for no more than one school year to become academically proficient or if the student assistance team determines that retention of the student in the eighth grade will not assist the student to become academically proficient, the team shall design a high school graduation plan to meet the student's needs for entry into the work force or a post-secondary educational institution. If a student is retained in the eighth grade, the student assistance team shall develop a specific academic improvement plan that clearly delineates the student's academic deficiencies and prescribes a specific remediation plan to address those academic deficiencies.

H. A student who does not demonstrate academic proficiency for two successive school years shall be referred to the student assistance team for placement in an alternative program designed by the school district. Alternative program plans shall be filed with the department.

I. Promotion and retention decisions affecting a student enrolled in special education shall be made in accordance with the provisions of the individual educational plan established for that student.

J. For the purposes of this section:

(1) "academic improvement plan" means a written document developed by the student assistance team that describes the specific content standards required for a certain grade level that a student has not achieved and that prescribes specific remediation programs such as summer school, extended day or week school and tutoring;

(2) "school-district-determined assessment results" means the results obtained from student assessments developed or adopted by a local school board and conducted at an elementary grade level or middle school level;

- (a) teacher;
- (b) school counselor;

A. The "school support and accountability system" is created in the department. The department, in consultation with school districts, charter schools, school personnel, tribal nations and the legislative education study committee, shall promulgate rules to carry out the provisions of the School Support and Accountability Act through the system.

B. The system shall:

(1) differentiate Title 1 support to public schools in the state using the metrics identified in Paragraphs (2) and (3) of this subsection to assign, for each public school, a designation of targeted support, comprehensive support or more rigorous intervention to comply with the federal Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965;

(2) include indicators of academic achievement that shall be afforded substantial weight and, in the aggregate, much greater weight than the indicators described in Paragraph (3) of this subsection, including:

(a) student proficiency on the New Mexico standards-based assessments pursuant to Subsection B of Section 22-2C-4 NMSA 1978;

(b) student growth, which will comprise a substantial part of the weighting of academic achievement indicators both for all students at the public school and disaggregated by quartile on the New Mexico standards-based assessments;

(c) progress of English language learners toward English language proficiency as measured by an assessment determined by the department; and

(d) for high schools, the four-year, five-year and six-year adjusted cohort graduation rates; and

(c) the educational climate of the school.

C. The department shall include in the system student data disaggregated by each major racial and ethnic group, economically disadvantaged students, English learner status, children with disabilities, gender and migrant status; provided that ethnicity and race shall be reported using the following categories:

(2) Hispanic;

(3) African American;

(4) American Indian or Alaska Native;

D. The department shall provide the technological platform for a dashboard for each public school. The dashboard shall provide school and student information to school stakeholders and policymakers in a transparent manner, including the following indicators:

(1) the results of each indicator included in Paragraphs (2) and (3) of Subsection B and in Subsection C of this section;

(2) designations of school quality and student success for any school meeting a specific standard set by the department for any indicator included in Paragraphs (2) and (3) of Subsection B of this section;

For local school boards that do not provide this information, the department shall populate this section of the dashboard with information from the public school's educational plan for student success.

F. The department shall ensure that a local school board prioritizes the resources of a public school that has received a designation of targeted support, comprehensive support or more rigorous intervention toward improving student performance using evidence-based programs and a continuous improvement plan based on the indicators in Paragraphs (2) and (3) of Subsection B of this section identified through a school-level needs assessment until the public school no longer holds that designation.

Section makes local board's supervision and control of public school in district "subject to the regulations of state board." Morgan v. N.M. State Bd. of Educ., 1971-NMCA-102, 83 N.M. 106, 488 P.2d 1210, cert. denied, 83 N.M. 105, 488 P.2d 1209.

No Eleventh Amendment immunity. — School districts and their governing boards in New Mexico are not arms of the state entitled to Eleventh Amendment immunity. Duke v. Grady Mun. Schs., 127 F.3d 972 (10th Cir. 1997).

Legislative intent. — The New Mexico legislature intended school districts or boards to be political subdivisions or local public bodies, not arms of the state. Duke v. Grady Mun. Schs., 127 F.3d 972 (10th Cir. 1997).

Liability of state. — State of New Mexico is not legally liable for judgment against a school district. Duke v. Grady Mun. Schs., 127 F.3d 972 (10th Cir. 1997).

Authority of local board over personnel. — A local board is the only entity with power to terminate employees; the purpose of former Subsection D is to require input of a superintendent before a personnel decision is made, and not to render a board powerless to act except in accordance with the recommendation of its superintendent.

Daddow v. Carlsbad Mun. Sch. Dist., 1995-NMSC-032, 120 N.M. 97, 898 P.2d 1235 (decided under prior law).

Procurement Code exemptions applicable to school boards. — The provision of Subsection N (now Subsection J) requires school boards to contract according to all but two sections of the entire Procurement Code; this means that all bidding requirements of the Code, including the exemptions in Section 13-1-98 NMSA 1978, apply to school district contracts. Morningstar Water Users Ass'n v. Farmington Mun. Sch. Dist. No. 5, 1995-NMSC-052, 120 N.M. 307, 901 P.2d 725.

Ultra vires acts by school boards. — Any attempt by a local school board to enter into a contract or formulate a policy that violates the specific statutory provisions governing school boards is ultra vires and void. Thus, any attempt by a school board to enter into a contract or promulgate a termination policy through manuals which give an employee rights in conflict with the School Personnel Act is ultra vires and void. Swinney v. Deming Bd. of Educ., 1994-NMSC-039, 117 N.M. 492, 873 P.2d 238.

The local school board, as the policy maker of the public employer, is the proper party to engage in collective bargaining negotiations and to review employee grievances. — Where the central consolidated school district refused to review grievances appealed to the school board pursuant to a negotiated grievance procedure contained in a collective bargaining agreement (CBA) with the teachers' union, and where the school board asserted that changes made to the Public School Code in 2003 divested school boards of all authority to act on any personnel matters and vested exclusive authority to act on all personnel matters in the local school superintendent, the district court did not err in affirming the order of the public employee labor relations board that the school board is required to hear and decide appeals from decisions of the school superintendent under grievance procedures set forth in the CBA, because the school board, as the policy maker who negotiated and agreed to the CBA is the appropriate entity to determine whether its own policy, or specific provision in the CBA, has been violated, misinterpreted, or misapplied. Alarcon v. Albuquerque Pub. Schs. Bd. of Educ., 2018-NMCA-021, cert. denied.

School board's supervision and discharge of superintendent. — Inherent in the power given to the school board to employ a superintendent is the ability for the board to supervise and discharge a superintendent. Stanley v. Raton Bd. of Educ., 1994-NMSC-059, 117 N.M. 717, 876 P.2d 232.

Employment of administrators. — The school board effectively terminated the plaintiffs' employment as school administrators by declaring the jobs vacant, and therefore met the obligations under this section. The plaintiffs could reasonably infer from the board's actions that they were not reemployed for the next year. Naranjo v. Board of Educ., 1995-NMSC-015, 119 N.M. 401, 891 P.2d 542.

School districts and their governing boards in New Mexico are not arms of the state, and they are accordingly not shielded by the Eleventh Amendment from liability for a 42 U.S.C. § 1983 action in federal court. Duke v. Grady Mun. Schs., 127 F.3d 972 (10th Cir. 1997).

Liability of local board under federal civil rights law. — In an action brought by a school employee against a school district local school board under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, the board was a "person" for purposes of the suit, and the action under such law was not barred by any statutory governmental immunity. Daddow v. Carlsbad Mun. Sch. Dist., 1995-NMSC-032, 120 N.M. 97, 898 P.2d 1235.

No power to create police department. — A local school board does not have the authority to create and fund an independent police department without specific legislative authority. 2007 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 07-07.

Use of public funds to defend actions involving misconduct. — Public funding may be used to defend public school districts, boards and employees in legal actions involving misconduct if the charges arise from the discharge of an official duty in which the government has an interest; the public employee was acting in good faith when the alleged wrongful conduct occurred; the employing government entity has express or implied legal authority to pay the employee's legal expenses; the employee is exonerated of the charges; and the decision to pay the legal fees is made by an impartial official or official body. 2007 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 07-03.

Conditions under which private group may use facilities. — A local board of education may permit a particular religious denomination or private group to use public school buildings or facilities after school hours where such use, in the opinion of the school board, will not interfere with normal school activities, but the board may not in any respect sanction or give endorsement to such religious denominational programs. 1963-64 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 63-106.

Include equal treatment of all groups. — A local school board must, in exercising its discretion as to whether a particular religious denomination may use public school facilities after school hours, either make the use of school facilities available to all religious groups on an equal basis and without preference as to any particular group or not permit such use at all. 1963-64 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 63-106.

And reimbursement of school's actual expenses. — Since a school district may not in any manner lend its financial or other support to any private religious denominations, it is incumbent upon school authorities to obtain reimbursement for any actual expenses occasioned from a religious group's private use of public school facilities. 1963-64 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 63-106.

Payment for time spent away from district by district employee. — A local school district employee who serves on the state board of education may draw salary from the district and per diem and expenses from the state department of education; however, he may not be paid for time spent away from his duties with the district unless he takes authorized leave with pay. 1987 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 87-45.

Character of private use determines whether state approval required. — Where a local school board desires to enter into a lease of real property to any private party or religious group and proposes to give exclusive right of possession and occupancy to school lands or buildings, the state board of finance must give its approval pursuant to Section 13-6-2 NMSA 1978. Where, however, the use permitted is temporary or brief and limited to hours when the property is not needed for school purposes, the approval of the state board of finance is not necessary, and the local board of education may or may not authorize such usage according to its discretion. 1963-64 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 63-106.

School board attendance allocation proper. — So long as the statutory and constitutional minimum educational standards are satisfied, the local school board may allocate attendance within the district. 1979 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 79-36.

School boards have authority to enact reasonable regulations relating to the suspension or expulsion of students. 1959-60 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 59-214.

Regulating married students. — A rule or regulation prohibiting married students from participating in band, glee club, dramatic events, school newspapers, school clubs, school sponsored trips and school athletics is arbitrary and unreasonable and therefore void. 1967 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 67-117.

Pregnant students. — A rule which would require the withdrawal of a student when it is known that she is pregnant and when the school officials do not believe that such attendance is proper clearly violates the compulsory attendance law; therefore if the girl is physically capable of attending school, the local school board may not prohibit her attendance by rule or regulation merely because she is pregnant. 1967 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 67-117.

School boards have authority to ban smoking. — Because local school boards have authority to supervise and control all public schools within their district, they can use that authority to ban smoking by both adults and minors on all public school campuses within their district. 1994 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 94-08.

School board president's authority. — A local school board president has authority to deny citizens the right to address the local school board during a meeting of the board, if he is authorized to do so by rules promulgated by the board and he does not exercise that authority arbitrarily or capriciously. 1990 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 90-26.

Health club memberships for employees. — A school district may spend public funds to provide its full time employees with membership in a private health club if the membership is provided in return for services rendered to the district. 1989 Op. Att'y Gen. No. 89-20.

22-5-4.1. Repealed.

Repeals. — Laws 1993, ch. 226, § 54 repealed 22-5-4.1 NMSA 1978, as enacted by Laws 1981, ch. 296, § 1, allowing local school boards to authorize a period of silence at the beginning of the school day, effective July 1, 1993. For provisions of former section, see the 1992 NMSA 978 on NMOneSource.com.

22-5-4.2. Child abuse; report coordination; confirmation.

A. A local school board shall adopt policies providing for the coordination and internal tracking of reports made pursuant to Section 32A-4-3 NMSA 1978. Such policies, however, shall not require any notification to school district personnel before the report is made to the offices listed in Subsection A of Section 32A-4-3 NMSA 1978. Such policies shall include measures to protect the identity of any alleged victims. No policy shall purport to relieve any person having a duty to report under Section 32A-4-3 NMSA 1978 from that duty.

B. After a report is made pursuant to Section 32A-4-3 NMSA 1978, the office receiving the notification shall notify the person making the report within five days after the report was made that the office is investigating the matter. Mailing a notice within five days shall constitute compliance with this subsection.

History: Laws 1985, ch. 94, § 1; 2021, ch. 94, § 3.

The 2021 amendment, effective June 18, 2021, removed discretionary language, and added mandatory language, related to a local school board adopting policies providing for the coordination and internal tracking of reports of child abuse or child neglect, added a confidentiality provision for alleged victims, and required the office receiving the report of child abuse or child neglect to notify the person making the report that the office is investigating the matter; in Subsection A, after "local school board", changed "may" to "shall", after "tracking of reports made", deleted "by school district personnel", after the first occurrence of "Section", changed "32-1-15" to "32A-4-3", after the second occurrence of "Section", added "32A-4-3 NMSA 1978. Such policies shall include measures to protect the identity of any alleged victims", after the third occurrence of "Section", added "32A-4-3 NMSA 1978"; and in Subsection B, after "report is made", deleted "to a county social services office of the human services department", after "Section", deleted "32-1-15" and added "32A-4-3", after "NMSA 1978", deleted "by any school district personnel that the", and after "office", added "receiving the notification".

22-5-4.3. School discipline policies; racial sensitivity and anti-racism training; hotline for reporting racially charged incidents and racialized aggression involving students or school personnel; students may self-administer certain medications.

A. Local school boards shall establish student discipline policies and shall file them with the department. The local school board shall involve parents, school personnel and students in the development of these policies, and public hearings shall be held during the formulation of these policies in the high school attendance areas within each school district or on a district-wide basis for those school districts that have no high school. No local school board shall allow for the imposition of discipline, discrimination or disparate treatment against a student based on the student's race, religion or culture or because of the student's use of protective hairstyles or cultural or religious headdresses.

B. Each school district discipline policy shall establish rules of conduct governing areas of student and school activity, detail specific prohibited acts and activities and enumerate possible disciplinary sanctions, which sanctions may include in-school suspension, school service, suspension or expulsion. Corporal punishment shall be prohibited by each local school board and each governing body of a charter school.

C. An individual school within a school district may establish a school discipline policy, provided that parents, school personnel and students are involved in its development and a public hearing is held in the school prior to its adoption. If an individual school adopts a discipline policy in addition to the local school board's school district discipline policy, it shall submit its policy to the local school board for approval.

D. All school discipline policies shall define and include a specific prohibition against racialized aggression involving a student or school personnel. Every school district and every charter school shall provide links to the statewide hotline to report racially charged incidents or racialized aggression.

E. No school employee who in good faith reports any known or suspected violation of the school discipline policy or in good faith attempts to enforce the policy shall be held liable for any civil damages as a result of such report or of the employee's efforts to enforce any part of the policy.

F. All public school and school district discipline policies shall allow students to carry and self-administer asthma medication and emergency anaphylaxis medication that has been legally prescribed to the student by a licensed health care provider under the following conditions:

(1) the health care provider has instructed the student in the correct and responsible use of the medication;

(2) the student has demonstrated to the health care provider and the school nurse or other school official the skill level necessary to use the medication and any device that is necessary to administer the medication as prescribed;

(3) the health care provider formulates a written treatment plan for managing asthma or anaphylaxis episodes of the student and for medication use by the student during school hours or school-sponsored activities, including transit to or from school or school-sponsored activities; and

(4) the student's parent has completed and submitted to the school any written documentation required by the school or the school district, including the treatment plan required in Paragraph (3) of this subsection and other documents related to liability.

G. The parent of a student who is allowed to carry and self-administer asthma medication and emergency anaphylaxis medication may provide the school with backup medication that shall be kept in a location to which the student has immediate access in the event of an asthma or anaphylaxis emergency.

H. Authorized school personnel who in good faith provide a person with backup medication as provided in this section shall not be held liable for civil damages as a result of providing the medication.

I. As used in this section:

(1) "cultural or religious headdresses" includes hijabs, head wraps or other headdresses used as part of an individual's personal cultural or religious beliefs;

(2) "protective hairstyles" includes such hairstyles as braids, locs, twists, tight coils or curls, cornrows, bantu knots, afros, weaves, wigs or head wraps; and

(3) "race" includes traits historically associated with race, including hair texture, length of hair, protective hairstyles or cultural or religious headdresses.

History: 1978 Comp., § 22-5-4.3, enacted by Laws 1986, ch. 33, § 9; 1993, ch. 226, § 13; 2005, ch. 60, § 1; 2011, ch. 97, § 1; 2021, ch. 19, § 1; 2021, ch. 37, § 1; 2021, ch. 51, § 8.

2021 Multiple Amendments. — Laws 2021, ch. 19, § 1 and Laws 2021, ch. 37, § 1, both effective July 1, 2021, and Laws 2021, ch. 51, § 8, effective June 18, 2021, enacted different amendments to this section that can be reconciled. Pursuant to 12-1-8 NMSA 1978, Laws 2021, ch. 51, § 8 as the last act signed by the governor is set out above and incorporates all amendments. The amendments enacted by Laws 2021, ch. 19, § 1, Laws 2021, ch. 37, § 1, and Laws 2021, ch. 51, § 8 are described below. To view the session laws in their entirety, see the 2021 session laws on NMOneSource.com.

The nature of the difference between the amendments is that Laws 2021, ch. 19, § 1 and Laws 2021, ch. 37, § 1, which enacted identical amendments, prohibited the imposition of discipline, discrimination or disparate treatment against a student based on the student's race, religion or culture or because of the student's use of protective hairstyles or cultural or religious headdresses, and defined "cultural or religious headdresses", "protective hairstyles", and "race" as used in this section, and Laws 2021, ch. 51, § 8, required school discipline policies to define and include a specific prohibition against racialized aggression involving a student or school personnel, and required every school district and every charter school to provide links to the statewide hotline to report incidents of racial aggression.

Laws 2021, ch. 19, § 1 and Laws 2021, ch. 37, § 1, effective July 1, 2021, prohibited the imposition of discipline, discrimination or disparate treatment against a student based on the student's race, religion or culture or because of the student's use of protective hairstyles or cultural or religious headdresses, and defined "cultural or religious headdresses", "protective hairstyles", and "race" as used in this section; in Subsection A, added the last sentence; and added Subsection H (now Subsection D).

Laws 2021, ch. 51, § 8, effective June 18, 2021, required school discipline policies to define and include a specific prohibition against racialized aggression involving a student or school personnel, and required every school district and every charter school to provide links to the statewide hotline to report incidents of racial aggression; in the section heading, added "racial sensitivity and anti-racism training; hotline for reporting racially charged incidents and racialized aggression involving students or school personnel"; and added a new Subsection D and redesignated the succeeding subsections accordingly.

The 2011 amendment, effective June 17, 2011, prohibited corporal punishment as a disciplinary sanction.

The 2005 amendment, effective June 17, 2005, permits students to carry and self-administer asthma medication and emergency anaphylaxis medication prescribed by a license health care provider.

The 1993 amendment, effective July 1, 1993, deleted former Subsection E, pertaining to the effective date of policies adopted pursuant to this section and the time for review of existing school discipline policies, and made a minor stylistic change in Subsection A.

ANNOTATIONS

Object of section is to prevent nepotism in initial hiring of school employees. The hiring of a teacher closely related to a member of the school board justifiably arouses public suspicion that the teacher was hired on the basis of relationship rather than merit. Such suspicions, however, relate only to the initial hiring of the teacher. There is no reason to suspect nepotism in the continued employment of a tenured teacher whose competency has been established by years of service, merely because a family member is elected to the school board at some time during the teacher's career. N.M. State Bd. of Educ. v. Board of Educ., 1981-NMSC-031, 95 N.M. 588, 624 P.2d 530 (decided prior to 1981 amendment).

22-8-23. Size adjustment program units.

A. An approved public school, including a charter school, with a MEM of fewer than four hundred, including early childhood education full-time-equivalent MEM but excluding membership in class C and class D programs and excluding full-time-equivalent membership in three- and four-year-old developmentally disabled programs, that is geographically located in a school district with fewer than two thousand MEM, is eligible for additional program units. Separate schools established to provide special programs, including but not limited to vocational and alternative education, shall not be classified as public schools for purposes of generating size adjustment program units. The number of additional program units to which a school district or charter school is entitled under this subsection is the sum of elementary-junior high units and senior high units computed in the following manner:

Elementary-Junior High Units

where MEM is equal to the membership of an approved elementary or junior high school, including early childhood education full-time-equivalent membership but excluding membership in class

C and class D programs and excluding full-time-equivalent membership in three- and four-year-old developmentally disabled programs;

Senior High Units

$$\frac{200 - \text{MEM}}{200} \times 2.0 \times \text{MEM} = \text{Units}$$

or,

Senior High Units

whichever calculation for senior high units is higher, where MEM is equal to the membership of an approved senior high school excluding membership in class C and class D programs.

B. An approved public school with a MEM of fewer than four hundred, including early childhood education full-time-equivalent MEM but excluding MEM in class C and class D programs and excluding full-time-equivalent MEM in three- and four-year-old developmentally disabled programs, geographically located in a school district with two thousand MEM or more is eligible for additional program units computed in the following manner:

- (1) for fiscal year 2020, eighty percent of the sum of elementary-junior high units and senior high units as prescribed in Subsection A of this section;
- (2) for fiscal year 2021, sixty percent of the sum of elementary-junior high units and senior high units as prescribed in Subsection A of this section;
- (3) for fiscal year 2022, forty percent of the sum of elementary-junior high units and senior high units as prescribed in Subsection A of this section;
- (4) for fiscal year 2023, twenty percent of the sum of elementary-junior high units and senior high units as prescribed in Subsection A of this section; and
- (5) for fiscal year 2024 and subsequent fiscal years, no elementary-junior high units and senior high units as prescribed in Subsection A of this section.

C. A school district with total MEM of fewer than four thousand, including early childhood education full-time-equivalent MEM, is eligible for additional program units. The number of additional program units to which a school district is entitled under this subsection is the number of district units computed in the following manner:

District Units

$$\frac{4,000 - \text{MEM}}{4,000} \times 0.15 \times \text{MEM} = \text{Units}$$

where MEM is equal to the total district membership, including early childhood education full-time-equivalent membership.

D. A school district, as defined in Subsection R of Section 22-1-2 NMSA 1978, with a MEM of fewer than two hundred, including early childhood education full-time-equivalent MEM, is eligible for additional program units if the department certifies that the school district has implemented practices to reduce scale inefficiencies, including shared service agreements with regional education cooperatives or other school districts for noninstructional functions and distance education. The numbers of additional program units to which a school district is entitled under this subsection is the number of units computed in the following manner:

$$200 - \text{MEM} = \text{Units}$$

where MEM is equal to the total district MEM, including early childhood education full-time-equivalent MEM.

E. A school district with a rural population rate greater than forty percent or a charter school initially chartered before July 1, 2018 and geographically located in a school district with a rural population rate greater than forty percent is eligible for additional program units. The number of additional program units to which a school district or charter school is entitled pursuant to this subsection is determined by multiplying the full-time-equivalent MEM by the rural population rate and the cost differential factor of 0.03 for fiscal year 2020, 0.06 for fiscal year 2021, 0.09 for fiscal year 2022, 0.12 for fiscal year 2023 and 0.15 for fiscal year 2024 and subsequent fiscal years.

A school district is eligible for additional program units if it establishes within its department-approved educational plan identified services to assist students to reach their full academic potential. A school district receiving additional at-risk program units shall include a report of specified services implemented to improve the academic success of at-risk students. The report shall identify the ways in which the school district and individual public schools use funding generated through the at-risk index and the intended outcomes. For purposes of this section, "at-risk student" means a student who meets the criteria to be included in the calculation of the three-year average total rate in Subsection B of this section. The number of additional units to which a school district is entitled under this section is computed in the following manner:

where MEM is equal to the total district membership, including early childhood education, full-time-equivalent membership and special education membership and where the at-risk index is calculated in the following manner:

$$\text{Three-Year Average Total Rate} \times 0.30 = \text{At-Risk Index.}$$

B. To calculate the three-year average total rate, the department shall compute a three-year average of the school district's percentage of membership used to determine its Title 1 allocation, a three-year average of the percentage of membership classified as English language learners using criteria established by the office for civil rights of the United States department of education and a three-year average of the percentage of student mobility. The department shall then add the three-year average rates. The number obtained from this calculation is the three-year average total rate.

C. The department shall recalculate the at-risk index for each school district every year.

D. For purposes of this section, "services" means research-based or evidence-based social, emotional or academic interventions, such as:

- (1) case management, tutoring, reading interventions and after-school programs that are delivered by social workers, counselors, teachers or other professional staff;

The 2002 amendment, effective May 15, 2002, substituted "Three-Year Average Total Rate x 0.0915" for

"Refined At-Risk Cluster x 0.015" in the formula at the end of Subsection A; rewrote Subsection B by deleting provisions relating to refined at-risk clusters and inserting references to calculations based on three-year average rates; and, in Subsection C, substituted "year" for "two years" at the end of the present first sentence and added the second sentence.

22-8-23.4. National board for professional teaching standards; certified teachers program units.

The number of program units for teachers certified by the national board for professional teaching standards is determined by multiplying by one and one-half the number of teachers certified by the national board for professional teaching standards employed by the school district or charter school on or before the first reporting date of the school year and verified by the department. Department approval of these units shall be contingent on verification by the school district or charter school that these teachers are receiving a one-time salary differential equal to or greater than the amount generated by the units multiplied by the program unit value during the fiscal year in which the school district or charter school will receive these units.

the second reporting date, which is the second Wednesday in December; and references pertaining to the one-hundred twentieth-day or one-hundred twenty-day report of public school membership or enrollment shall be deemed to be references to the third reporting date, which is the second Wednesday in February.

As the public schools transition from former reporting dates to new reporting dates, the public education department may use any combination of former and new reporting dates as necessary to develop membership and cost projections and budgets for the 2010-2011 school year.

The 2006 amendment, effective July 1, 2007, added charter schools.

22-8-23.5. Fine arts education program units.

The number of fine arts education program units is determined by multiplying the full-time-equivalent MEM in programs implemented in accordance with the provisions of the Fine Arts Education Act [Chapter 22, Article 15D NMSA 1978] by the cost differential factor of 0.0166 for fiscal year 2004, 0.0332 for fiscal year 2005 and 0.05 for fiscal year 2006 and succeeding fiscal years.

The student activities program unit shall be paid to the school district in which it is generated. A charter school student is eligible to participate in school district activities at the public school in the attendance zone in which the student resides, according to the New Mexico activities association guidelines. If the student chooses to participate at a public school other than the one in the attendance zone in which the student resides, the student shall be subject to New Mexico activities association transfer guidelines.

Notwithstanding the provision in Section 22-8-2 NMSA 1978 defining a qualified student as one who is regularly enrolled in one-half or more of the minimum course requirements approved by the department for public school students, home school students may take one or more classes at public schools and, if so, shall generate program units as provided in this section. The home school student program unit for a school district is determined by multiplying the number of home school students who are enrolled in one or more classes by the cost differential factor 0.25 per class per home school student up to the enrollment required for the home school student to meet the definition of "qualified student". The home school student program units shall be paid to the school district in which they are generated. A home school student is eligible to enroll in a public school in the attendance zone in which the student resides or in another public school outside the attendance zone as provided in Section 22-1-4 NMSA 1978. A. For the purpose of calculating the instructional staff training and experience index, the following definitions and limitations shall apply:

(1) "instructional staff" means the personnel assigned to the instructional program of the school district, excluding principals, substitute teachers, instructional aides, secretaries and clerks;

(2) the number of instructional staff to be counted in calculating the instructional staff training and experience index is the actual number of full-time equivalent instructional staff on the October payroll;

(3) the number of years of experience to be used in calculating the instructional staff training and experience index is that number of years of experience allowed for salary increment purposes on the salary schedule of the school district; and

(4) the academic degree and additional credit hours to be used in calculating the instructional staff training and experience index is the degree and additional semester credit hours allowed for salary increment purposes on the salary schedule of the school district.

B. The factors for each classification of academic training by years of experience are provided in the following table:

Academic Classification	Years of Experience
	0 - 2	3 - 5	6 - 8	9 - 15	Over 15
Bachelor's degree or less	.75	.90	1.00	1.05	1.05
Bachelor's degree plus 15 credit hours	.80	.95	1.00	1.10	1.15
Master's degree or bachelor's degree plus 45 credit hours	.85	1.00	1.05	1.15	1.20
Master's degree plus 15 credit hours	.90	1.05	1.15	1.30	1.35
Post-master's degree or master's degree plus 45 credit hours	1.00	1.15	1.30	1.40	1.50

C. The instructional staff training and experience index for each school district shall be calculated in accordance with instructions issued by the state superintendent [secretary]. The following calculations shall be computed:

(1) multiply the number of full-time equivalent instructional staff in each academic classification by the numerical factor in the appropriate "years of experience" column provided in the table in Subsection B of this section;

(2) add the products calculated in Paragraph (1) of this subsection; and

(3) divide the total obtained in Paragraph (2) of this subsection by the total number of full-time equivalent instructional staff.

D. In the event that the result of the calculation of the training and experience index is 1.0 or less, the district's factor shall be no less than 1.0.

E. In the event that a new school district is created, the training and experience index for that district is 1.12.

(3) calculate the number of program units to which a school district or charter school with a MEM of two hundred or less is entitled by using an average of the MEM on the second and third reporting dates of the prior year or the MEM on the first reporting date of the current year, whichever is greater; provided that the calculation of program units using the MEM on the first reporting date of the current school year shall exclude enrollment growth program units;

(4) using the results of the calculations in Paragraph (1), (2) or (3) of this subsection and the staffing cost multiplier from the October report of the prior school year, establish a total program cost of the school district or charter school;

(5) deduct the total amount of guaranteed energy savings contract payments that the department determines will be made to the school district from the public school utility conservation fund during the fiscal year for which the state equalization guarantee distribution is being computed; and

(6) deduct ninety percent of the amount certified for the school district by the department pursuant to the Energy Efficiency and Renewable Energy Bonding Act [Chapter 6, Article 21D NMSA 1978].

B. Reduction of a school district's state equalization guarantee distribution shall cease when the school district's cumulative reductions equal its proportional share of the cumulative debt service payments necessary to service the bonds issued pursuant to the Energy Efficiency and Renewable Energy Bonding Act [Chapter 6, Article 21D NMSA 1978].

C. The amount of the state equalization guarantee distribution to which a school district is entitled is the balance remaining after the deductions made in Paragraphs (5) and (6) of Subsection A of this section.

D. The amount of the state equalization guarantee distribution to which a state-chartered charter school is entitled is the difference between the state-chartered charter school's program cost and the two percent withheld by the department for administrative services.

E. The state equalization guarantee distribution shall be distributed prior to June 30 of each fiscal year. In the event that a school district or charter school has received more state equalization guarantee funds than its entitlement, a refund shall be made by the school district or charter school to the state general fund.

ANNOTATIONS

Federal impact aid deductions. — Where the New Mexico public education department (department) reduced state equalization guarantee (SEG) distribution payments to the Zuni public school district based on anticipated federal impact aid payments prior to certification from the secretary of the United States department of education (DOE), the district court erred in finding that the deductions were authorized under state law, because, under state and federal law, the state may not take into consideration impact aid payments, whether anticipated or actually received, prior to obtaining certification from the DOE secretary, and the department may not reduce SEG distribution payments to an impacted district prior to certification, but once the state has received its certification from the DOE secretary, the certification shall apply retroactively to any impact aid payments received by the district during the entire fiscal year. N.M. Pub. Educ. Dep't v. Zuni Pub. Sch. Dist. #89, 2018-NMSC-029.

Deductions of federal impact aid funds from state equalization guarantee distribution. — Where the Zuni public school district (Zuni) petitioned the district court for a writ of mandamus, declaratory relief, and injunctive relief, claiming that the New Mexico department of education (department) violated the Public School Finance Act (the act) by deducting federal impact aid funds it anticipated that Zuni was going to receive from funds it was otherwise entitled to under the act's share of school funding prior to the federal department of education (DOE) secretary certifying New Mexico's school funding system, the district court erred in granting the department's motion for summary judgment because under federal law, the department was prohibited from taking into account Zuni's federal impact aid payments before the DOE secretary issued its certification. *Zuni Pub. B. In the event a school district's or state-chartered charter school's transportation allocation exceeds the amount required to meet obligations to provide to-and-from transportation, three- and four-year-old developmentally disabled transportation and vocational education transportation, fifty percent of the remaining balance shall be deposited in the transportation emergency fund.

C. Of the excess amount retained by the school district or state-chartered charter school, at least twenty-five percent shall be used for to-and-from transportation-related services, excluding salaries and benefits, and up to twenty-five percent may be used for other transportation-related services, excluding salaries and benefits as defined by rule of the department.

D. In the event the sum of the proposed transportation allocations to each school district or state-chartered charter school exceeds the amounts in the transportation distribution, the allocation to each school district or state-chartered charter school shall be reduced in the proportion that the school district or state-chartered charter school allocation bears to the total statewide transportation distribution.

A. The department shall establish a systematic program for the purchase of necessary school bus transportation equipment.

B. In establishing a system for the replacement of school-district-owned buses, the department shall provide for the replacement of school buses on a twelve-year cycle. Under exceptional circumstances, school districts may also petition the department for permission to replace buses prior to the completion of a twelve-year cycle or to use buses in excess of twelve years contingent upon satisfactory annual safety inspections.

C. In establishing a system for the use of contractor-owned buses by school districts or state-chartered charter schools, the department shall establish a schedule for the payment of rental fees for the use of contractor-owned buses. The department shall establish procedures to ensure the systematic replacement of buses on a twelve-year replacement cycle. School districts requiring additional buses to accommodate growth in the school district or to meet other special needs may petition the department for additional buses. In the event a school bus service contract is terminated or not renewed by either party, the department shall calculate the remaining number of years that a bus could be used based on a twelve-year replacement cycle and calculate a value reflecting that use. The school district shall deduct an amount equal to that value from any remaining amount due on the contract, or if no balance remains on the contract, the contractor shall reimburse the school district an amount equal to the value calculated.

F. If the school district fails to take action to collect money owed to it when a school bus contract is terminated or not renewed, the department may deduct the amount from the school district's transportation distribution.

22-8-29.1. Calculation of transportation allocation.

A. As used in this section:

(1) "annual variables" means the coefficients calculated by regressing the total operational expenditures from two years prior to the current school year for each school district and state-chartered charter school using the number of students transported and the numerical value of site characteristics; provided that for fiscal years 2022 and 2023, the coefficients shall be calculated by regressing the total operational expenditures from fiscal year 2019;

(2) "base amount" means the fixed amount that is the same for all school districts and an amount established by rule for state-chartered charter schools;

(3) "total operational expenditures" means the sum of all to-and-from school transportation expenditures, excluding expenditures incurred in accordance with the provisions of Section 22-8-27 NMSA 1978; and

(4) "variable amount" means the sum of the product of the annual variables multiplied by each school district's or state-chartered charter school's numerical value of the school district's and state-chartered charter school's site characteristics multiplied by the number of days of operation for each school district or state-chartered charter school.

B. The department shall calculate the transportation allocation for each school district and state-chartered charter school.

C. The base amount is designated as product A. Product A is the constant calculated by regressing the total operational expenditures from the two years prior to the current school year for school district or state-chartered charter school operations using the numerical value of site characteristics approved by the department. The legislative education study committee and the legislative finance committee may review the site characteristics developed by the state transportation director prior to approval by the department.

D. The variable amount is designated as product B. Product B is the predicted additional expenditures for each school district or state-chartered charter school based on the regression analysis using the site characteristics as predictor variables multiplied by the number of days.

E. The allocation to each school district and state-chartered charter school shall be equal to product A plus product B. The adjustment factor shall be applied to the calculation.

F. For the 2001-2002, 2002-2003 and 2003-2004 school years, the transportation allocation for each school district shall not be less than ninety-five percent or more than one hundred five percent of the prior school year's transportation expenditure.

22-8-31. State-support reserve fund.

A. The "state-support reserve fund" is created.

B. The state-support reserve fund shall be used only to augment the appropriations for the state equalization guarantee distribution in order to ensure, to the extent of the amount undistributed in the fund, that the maximum figures for such distribution established by law shall not be reduced.

C. The undistributed money in the state-support reserve fund shall be invested by the state treasurer in interest-bearing securities of the United States government or in certificates of deposit in qualified banks and in savings and loan associations whose deposits are insured with an agency of the United States. The state treasurer may deposit money from the state-support reserve fund or any other fund in one or more accounts with any such bank or federally insured savings and loan association, but the state treasurer, in any official capacity, shall not deposit money from that fund or any other fund in any one federally insured savings and loan association the aggregate of which would exceed the amount of federal savings and loan insurance corporation insurance for a single public account. Income from these investments shall be periodically credited to the general fund.

D. At least forty-five days before the money is needed, the chief shall notify the state treasurer in writing of the amount that will be needed for distribution.

E. It is the intent of the legislature that the state-support reserve fund be reimbursed in the amount of the yearly distribution by appropriation in the year following the distribution so that the fund at the beginning of each fiscal year shall have a credit balance of at least ten million dollars ($10,000,000).

F. Distribution from the state-support reserve fund shall be made in the same manner and on the same basis as the state equalization guarantee distribution.

22-8-38. Boards of finance; designation.

A. Upon written application to and approval of the department, a local school board may be designated a board of finance for public school funds of the school district. A local school board designated as a board of finance may require all funds distributed to, allocated to or collected for the school district or the public schools under its jurisdiction to be deposited with it. The department shall designate a local school board as a board of finance if:

- (1) the local school board shows to the satisfaction of the department that it has personnel properly trained to keep accurate and complete fiscal records;
- (2) the local school board agrees to consult with the department on any matters not covered by the manual of accounting and budgeting before taking any action relating to funds held by it as a board of finance;
- (3) the persons handling these funds are adequately bonded to protect the funds entrusted to them from loss; and
- (4) the local school board making application has not been suspended and not reinstated as a board of finance within the past year.

B. A charter school applicant requesting a charter from the commission shall submit a plan detailing how its governing body will qualify for designation as a board of finance for public school funds of the charter school. The governing body of a proposed state-chartered charter school shall qualify as a board of finance before the first year of operation of the charter school. The governing body of a state-chartered charter school designated as a board of finance may require all funds distributed to, allocated to or collected for the state-chartered charter school to be deposited with the governing body. The commission shall designate the governing body of a state-chartered charter school as a board of finance if:

- (1) the governing body shows to the satisfaction of the commission that it has personnel properly trained to keep accurate and complete fiscal records;
- (2) the governing body agrees to consult with the division on any matters not covered by the manual of accounting and budgeting before taking any action relating to funds held by it as a board of finance;
- (3) the persons handling these funds are adequately bonded to protect the funds entrusted to them from loss; and
- (4) the governing body was not a governing body of a charter school or does not have a member who was a member of a governing body of a charter school that was suspended and not reinstated as a board of finance.

C. Failure of the governing body of a proposed state-chartered charter school to qualify for designation as a board of finance constitutes good and just grounds for denial, nonrenewal or revocation of its charter.

History: 1953 Comp., § 77-6-42, enacted by Laws 1967, ch. 16, § 96; 1988, ch. 64, § 35; 2006, ch. 94, § 23.

The 2006 amendment, effective July 1, 2007, changed "state superintendent" to "department" in Subsection A and in Paragraphs (1) and (2) of Subsection A; added Subsection B to provide for the designation of boards of finance for charter schools and state-chartered charter schools and the criteria for designation of the governing body of a state-chartered charter school as a board of finance; and added Subsection C to provide that failure of a governing body of a state-chartered charter school to qualify as a board of finance is grounds for denial, nonrenewal or revocation of its charter.

The 1988 amendment, effective May 18, 1988, substituted "state superintendent" for "chief" throughout the section; deleted "of the division" following "manual of accounting and budgeting" in Subsection B; and made a minor stylistic change in Subsection C.

22-8-39. Boards of finance; suspension.

The department may at any time suspend a local school board or governing body of a state-chartered charter school from acting as a board of finance if the department reasonably believes there is mismanagement, improper recording or improper reporting of public school funds under the local school board's or governing body of a state-chartered charter school's control. When a local school board or governing body of a state-chartered charter school is suspended from acting as a board of finance, the department shall:

- A. immediately take control of all public school funds under the control of the local school board or governing body of a state-chartered charter school acting as a board of finance;
- B. immediately have an audit made of all funds under the control of the local school board or governing body of a state-chartered charter school acting as a board of finance and charge the cost of the audit to the school district or state-chartered charter school;
- C. act as a fiscal agent for the school district or state-chartered charter school and take any action necessary to conform the fiscal management of funds of the school district or state-chartered charter school to the requirements of law and good accounting practices;
- D. report any violations of the law to the proper law enforcement officers;
- E. act as fiscal agent for the school district or state-chartered charter school until the department determines that the local school board or governing body of a state-chartered charter school is capable of acting as a board of finance or until the department determines that the county treasurer should act as fiscal agent for the school district or state-chartered charter school;
- F. inform the local school board or governing body of a state-chartered charter school in writing of the department's determination as to who is to act as board of finance or fiscal agent for the school district or state-chartered charter school and also inform the county treasurer in writing if it determines that the county treasurer should act as fiscal agent for the school district or state-chartered charter school; and

G. consider commencing proceedings before the commission to suspend, revoke or refuse to renew the charter of the state-chartered charter school in the case of a state-chartered charter school that has engaged in serious or repeated mismanagement, improper recording or improper reporting of public school funds under its control.

History: 1953 Comp., § 77-6-43, enacted by Laws 1967, ch. 16, § 97; 1988, ch. 64, § 38; 2006, ch. 94, § 24.

The 2006 amendment, effective July 1, 2007, changed "state superintendent" to "department" and added the governing body of a state-chartered charter school; and added Subsection G to provide for proceedings to suspend, revoke or refuse to renew a charter of a state-chartered charter school in cases of mismanagement or improper recording or reporting of school funds.

The 1988 amendment, effective May 18, 1988, substituted "state superintendent" for "chief" twice in the introductory paragraph and made a minor stylistic change.

22-8-40. Deposit of public school funds; distribution; interest.

A. All public money in the custody of school districts or state-chartered charter schools that have been designated as boards of finance shall be deposited in qualified depositories in accordance with the terms of this section.

B. Deposits of funds of the school district or state-chartered charter school may be made in noninterest-bearing checking accounts in one or more banks, savings and loan associations or credit unions, as long as the credit union deposits are insured by an agency of the United States, located within the geographical limits of the school district.

C. Deposits of funds of the school district or state-chartered charter school may be made in interest-bearing checking accounts, commonly known as "NOW" accounts, in one or more banks, savings and loan associations or credit unions, as long as the credit union deposits are insured by an agency of the United States, located within the geographical limits of the school district.

D. Public money placed in interest-bearing deposits, in banks and savings and loan associations, other than interest-bearing checking accounts as defined in Subsection C of this section, shall be equitably distributed among all banks and savings and loan associations having their main or manned branch offices within the geographical boundaries of the school district that have qualified as public depositories by reason of insurance of the account by an agency of the United States or by depositing collateral security or by giving bond as provided by law in the proportion that each such bank's or savings and loan association's net worth bears to the total net worth of all banks and savings and loan associations having their main office or a manned branch office within the geographical boundaries of the school district. The net worth of the main office of a savings and loan association and its manned branch offices within the geographical boundaries of a school district is the total net worth of the association multiplied by the percentage that deposits of the main office and the manned branch offices located within the geographical boundaries of the school district are of the total deposits of the association. The net worth of each manned branch office or aggregate of manned branch offices of a savings and loan association located outside the geographical boundaries of the school district in which the main office is located is the total net worth of the association multiplied by the percentage that deposits of the branch or aggregate of branches located outside the geographical boundaries of the school district in which the main office is located are of the total deposits of the association. The director of the financial institutions division of the regulation and licensing department shall promulgate a formula for determining the net worth of banks' main offices and branches for the purposes of distribution of public money as provided for by this section. "Net worth" means assets less liabilities as reported by such banks and savings and loan associations on their most recent semiannual reports to the state or federal supervisory authority having jurisdiction.

E. Notwithstanding the provisions of Subsection D of this section, public money may be placed in interest-bearing deposits, other than interest-bearing checking accounts as defined in Subsection C of this section, at the discretion of the board of finance, in credit unions having their main or manned branch offices within the geographical boundaries of the school district to the extent such deposits are insured by an agency of the United States.

F. The rate of interest for all public money deposited in interest-bearing accounts in banks, savings and loan associations and credit unions shall be set by the state board of finance, but in no case shall the rate of interest be less than one hundred percent of the asked price on United States treasury bills of the same maturity on the date of deposit. Any bank or savings and loan association that fails to pay the minimum rate of interest at the time of deposit provided for herein for any respective deposit forfeits its right to an equitable share of that deposit under this section. If the deposit is part or all of the proceeds of a bond issue and the interest rate prescribed in this subsection materially exceeds the rate of interest of the bonds, the interest rate prescribed by this subsection shall be reduced on the deposit to an amount not materially exceeding the interest rate of the bonds if the bond issue would lose its tax exempt status under Section 103 of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended.

G. Public money in excess of that for which banks and savings and loan associations within the geographical boundaries of the school district have qualified may be deposited in qualified depositories, including credit unions, in other areas within the state under the same requirements for payment of interest as if the money were deposited within the geographical boundaries of the school district.

H. The board of finance of the school district or state-chartered charter school may temporarily invest money held in demand deposits and not immediately needed for the operation of the school district or state-chartered charter school. Such temporary investments shall be made only in securities that are issued by the state or by the United States government, or by their departments or agencies, and that are either direct obligations of the state or the United States or are backed by the full faith and credit of those governments.

I. The department of finance and administration may monitor the deposits of public money by school districts or state-chartered charter schools to assure full compliance with the provisions of this section.

History: 1953 Comp., § 77-6-44, enacted by Laws 1967, ch. 16, § 98; 1968, ch. 18, § 12; 1975, ch. 157, § 10; 1975, ch. 304, § 3; reenacted by 1977, ch. 136, § 2; 1978, ch. 128, § 8; 1980, ch. 151, § 49; 1981, ch. 332, § 18; 1983, ch. 191, § 2; 1987, ch. 79, § 23; 2006, ch. 94, § 25.

22-8-40.1. Deposit of public school funds; providing exception on interest rate limitation for "NOW" accounts.

Notwithstanding the provisions of Subsection E of Section 22-8-40 NMSA 1978, the requirement for a rate of interest of not less than one hundred percent of the asked price on United States treasury bills of the same maturity on the day of deposit shall not apply to interest-bearing checking accounts.

History: 1978 Comp., § 22-8-40.1, enacted by Laws 1981, ch. 341, § 1.

22-8-41. Restriction on operational funds; emergency accounts; cash balances.

A. A school district shall not expend money from its operational fund for the acquisition of a building site or for the construction of a new structure, unless the school district has bonded itself to practical capacity or the secretary determines and certifies to the legislative finance committee that the expending of money from the operational fund for this purpose is necessary for an adequate public educational program and will not unduly hamper the school district's current operations.

B. A school district or charter school may budget out of cash balances carried forward from the previous fiscal year an amount not to exceed five percent of its proposed operational fund expenditures for the ensuing fiscal year as an emergency account. Money in the emergency account shall be used only for unforeseen expenditures incurred after the annual budget was approved and shall not be expended without the prior written approval of the secretary.

C. In addition to the emergency account, school districts or charter schools may also budget operational fund cash balances carried forward from the previous fiscal year for operational expenditures, exclusive of salaries and payroll, upon specific prior approval of the secretary. The secretary shall notify the legislative finance committee in writing of the secretary's approval of such proposed expenditures.

D. Notwithstanding any provision of this section to the contrary, the secretary shall reduce school districts' and charter schools' fiscal year 2017 state equalization guarantee distributions as credit for excess fiscal year 2016 operational fund cash balances in accordance with Section 2 of this 2017 act, and a school district or charter school whose distribution is accordingly reduced shall apply in the amount of that credit its audited fiscal year 2016 operational fund cash balance toward the school district's or charter school's fiscal year 2017 operations.

The 2017 amendment, effective January 31, 2017, limited certain school districts' and charter schools' fiscal year 2016 cash balances by taking credits against those schools' fiscal year 2017 state equalization guarantee distributions; in Subsection C, deleted "For fiscal years 2004 and 2005, with the approval of the secretary, a school district or charter school may budget so much of its operational cash balance as is needed for nonrecurring expenditures, including capital outlay."; and added a new Subsection D.

Temporary provisions. — Laws 2017, ch. 3, § 2, provided that the secretary of public education shall:

A. apply as a credit against the fiscal year 2017 state equalization guarantee distribution of each school district and charter school that does not receive an emergency supplemental distribution in fiscal year 2017 and whose audited fiscal year 2016 operational fund cash balance is greater than three percent of its fiscal year 2016 program cost an amount equal to the result of the following calculation or, if, using that result, the applied credit would leave the school district's or charter school's audited fiscal year 2016 operational fund cash balance below three percent of its fiscal year 2016 program cost, then equal to the portion of that result that will leave the school district's or charter school's audited fiscal year 2016 operational fund cash balance at three percent of its fiscal year 2016 program cost:

(1) fifty million dollars ($50,000,000) divided by the fiscal year 2016 program costs for all school districts and charter schools; and

(2) that quotient multiplied by the school district's or charter school's fiscal year 2016 program cost;

B. promptly after January 31, 2017, notify each school district and charter school of the amount of its credit; and

C. for each school district and charter school that does not receive an emergency supplemental distribution in fiscal year 2017 and whose audited fiscal year 2016 operational fund cash balance is greater than three percent of its fiscal year 2016 program cost, reduce by the amount of its credit the school district's or charter school's state equalization guarantee distributions evenly over the period remaining in fiscal year 2017.

The 2011 amendment, effective April 4, 2011, permitted school districts to keep their cash balances for emergency or operational expenditures by eliminating the former limitation on allowable operational cash balances, the reduction of the state equalization guarantee distribution, and the prohibition against budgeting cash balances.

Applicability. — Laws 2011, ch. 39, § 2 provided that Laws 2011, ch. 39, § 1 applies to cash balances realized from the appropriations in fiscal year 2011 and subsequent fiscal years.

Such actions or sanctions by the chartering authority may include requiring a governing body to develop and execute a corrective action plan with the chartering authority that sets forth time frames for compliance.

G. Every chartering authority shall submit an annual report to the division, including a performance report for each charter school that it oversees, in accordance with the performance framework set forth in the charter contract.

The department shall use the annual reports received from the chartering authorities as part of its report to the governor, the legislative finance committee and the legislative education study committee as required by the Charter Schools Act.

I. No later than two hundred seventy days prior to the date in which the charter expires, the governing body may submit a renewal application to the chartering authority. (4) a petition in support of the charter school renewing its charter status signed by not less than sixty-five percent of the employees in the charter school;

(2) allow the charter school a reasonable amount of time to prepare and submit a response to the chartering authority's action; and

(3) require the final determination made by the chartering authority to be submitted to the department.

M. If a chartering authority suspends, revokes or does not renew a charter, the chartering authority shall state in writing its reasons for the suspension, revocation or nonrenewal.
